

CHRISTIAN PULPIT TOO HARM FOR REV. DR. POWELL

Friends Tell Him They Want His Absence--Farwell Sermon Turned Down--Picture Turned to Wall

act is that Rev. Frank Powell has given over to the ministry, a lively sense of his action is still and he is spoken of as having easily yielded to

Rev. Frank Powell made quite a reputation in the pulpit of the Central Christian Church. He was earnest, gifted and eloquent and his preaching gave him great popularity. Recently, however, he became doubtful as to whether he was really following the true spiritual path. He craved a broader, freer religious atmosphere, and naturally turned to Unitarianism. He communed with Rev. B. Fay Mills, the eloquent pastor of the First Unitarian Church, who had once been a famous evangelical revivalist, and as a result, concluded that he belonged in the Unitarian fold. Without announcing his conversion to his congregation, he handed in his resignation and announced that he would preach his farewell sermon next Sunday night.

In the meantime it leaked out that sermon, and will quietly leave his pastorate and the town to become the pastor of a Unitarian church in Salem, Oregon.

His former parishioners, with whom he was a short time ago very popular, have not decided upon his successor, but they have turned his face to the wall in their regards as one lost, and they say ugly things about the malignant influence of B. Fay Mills.

The Trustees waited on Dr. Powell and told him that things were too warm for him in town. These are a few suggestions they made to him.

Your farewell sermon you can keep in your pocket.

Your good-bye is not wanted.

Our resolutions of good will towards you have been buried deep.

Your presence is not desired among the congregation.

When you're gone you'll be forgotten. "Much is plenty" of your kind of preaching.

And a few other gentle suggestions. The Trustees plainly told the pastor that he could not get out of the church quick enough to please them. They fairly staggered at the idea of that farewell sermon.

What did Dr. Powell do? He packed his grip while his friends were saying, there's a "hot time in that pulpit."

In the meantime it leaked out that he had become a Unitarian and the Tribune published the fact. From that moment the pious congregation of the Central Christian Church turned against him. They closed their hearts and the doors of their pulpit against him and abandoned him to the awful fate that awaits all who consort spiritually with E. Fay Mills.

The Trustees waited on Dr. Powell and told him that things were too warm for him in town. These are a few suggestions they made to him.

Your farewell sermon you can keep in your pocket.

Your good-bye is not wanted.

Our resolutions of good will towards you have been buried deep.

Your presence is not desired among the congregation.

When you're gone you'll be forgotten. "Much is plenty" of your kind of preaching.

And a few other gentle suggestions. The Trustees plainly told the pastor that he could not get out of the church quick enough to please them. They fairly staggered at the idea of that farewell sermon.

What did Dr. Powell do? He packed his grip while his friends were saying, there's a "hot time in that pulpit."

In the meantime it leaked out that

JP MORGAN WILL BE INTERESTED IN OIL FIELDS.

Having a Capital of Many Millions Will Make Investment in the South.

LD. Sept. 27.—J. Pierpont Morgan and his associates want to buy land, and they have formed another company, capitalized at $20,000,000, half of which sum will be invested in proven ground and the other half turned into a reserve fund not to be drawn until needed in the further purchase of real estate.

This association, it may be said, that persistent rumors have been afloat to the effect that the Associated Oil Company had made a sale of its entire holding to a New York syndicate, and that this fact accounts for the sudden cessation of work not long since, and the other acts that have aroused the interest of the public, but which have not been explained by the officials of the combine. Morgan, of course, would be able to take such property as that possessed by the Associated Oil Company, and his doing so would be in line with the reports referred to.

It is stated that the Morgan syndicate will be prepared to handle 2,000,000 barrels the first year of its existence and will increase that amount at the rate of a million a year until the whole demand of the market is met.

The papers for the new enterprise are now being drawn in New York.

Mr. Morgan and his associates want to buy land, and they have formed another company, capitalized at $20,000,000, half of which sum will be invested in proven ground and the other half turned into a reserve fund not to be drawn until needed in the further purchase of real estate.

Mr. Morgan and his associates want to buy land, and they have formed another company, capitalized at $20,000,000, half of which sum will be invested in proven ground and the other half turned into a reserve fund not to be drawn until needed in the further purchase of real estate.

He was brought down the lake in a launch and went directly to his home. His physicians are now attending him.

He is suffering considerably from exposure, but no ill effects are expected from his experience.

STRIKE HAS NOT YET BEEN SETTLED

He Was Following a Bent When He Broke His Ankle.

His Only Food Was Huckleberries
Hornless Found In Woods.

SEARCHING PARTY
FOUND HIM.

SEARCHING PARTY FOUND HIM.

AGED WOMAN DIES
IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Louisa Marian Macomber, a native of Massachusetts, aged 71 years, died at an early hour this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Captain W. F. Macomber of 1606 Milvia street. The cause of death was rheumatic fever. Arrangements for the funeral have not as yet been made.

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Louisa Marian Macomber, a native of Massachusetts, aged 71 years, died at an early hour this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Captain W. F. Macomber of 1606 Milvia street. The cause of death was rheumatic fever. Arrangements for the funeral have not as yet been made.

LEVI STRAUSS DEAD.

One of the Most Prominent Business Men of San Francisco.

Came to This Coast in the Early Days and Made a Fortune.

HEART DISEASE
CAUSE OF DEATH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Levi Strauss, one of the last of the old-time merchants of San Francisco, and one of the best known men from the southern limit of California to Puget Sound, died at his home last evening of heart disease.

Death came most suddenly to the old gentleman and he passed away just as if he were going to sleep. He replied cheerfully to a question from his nurse, and the next moment he was dead.

Mr. Strauss was born in Bavaria in 1829 and settled in this city in the early fifties.

He founded the dry goods firm of Levi Strauss and Company, one of the largest enterprises on the Pacific Coast, with a branch in New York City.

Mr. Strauss was interested in many other enterprises and leaves an immense estate.

Mr. Strauss was a bachelor.

The firm of Levi Strauss and Company, dry goods and general merchants, was established in the year 1853.

Mr. Strauss had practically no money, but he had nerve and energy and he was not here long before his standing in the community was the best.

In 1890 he incorporated the house under the old name of Levi Strauss & Co.

It was a private corporation, more of a partnership, and his four nephews were made his partners.

These are Jacob Stern, Sig. Stern, Louis Stern and Abraham Stern, Louis being in charge of the New York house.

These, with the exception of Mrs. S. W. Heller and Mrs. A. W. Scholle, the latter of New York, are the only relatives and heirs.

Mr. Strauss was a director of the Nevada National Bank and the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company.

Up to the 1st of January, this year, he was a director in the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company.

The funeral will take place on Monday morning from the Strauss residence, 621 Leavenworth street, the interment being in the Home of Peace Cemetery.

MANY ESCAPED
INSTANT DEATH

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The front portion of the nine-story office building under construction for Henry E. Willard, on Fourteenth street, opposite the new Willard Hotel, collapsed shortly after 8 o'clock this morning and a large crowd of people passing on their way to business had a miraculous escape from death or injury.

The accident was caused by over-weighting the two iron columns supporting the front of the building, they being insufficient to sustain the weight of the 800 and 1,000 pound stones which were being piled as a sill coping on the sixth floor. These immense stones and a part of the iron framework fell to the ground but fortunately the noise of the crash gave sufficient warning to the forty workmen employed and to the passers-by. Only one man, a laborer named Washington Gordon, was injured, but he was able to return to work.

SAN FRANCISCO MONEY IS RUSHED TO WALL STREET

There Was a Hard Pinch There During Week—Wild Night Rumors—Mistakes Made by Both Committees.

BY THE KNAVE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—This city is about to submit the question of public ownership of public utilities in a concrete, practical form to a vote of the people. It is proposed to take over the Geary Street Railroad and operate it—"of the people, by the people, for the people." Already has begun the battle of tongues, and the controversy is having an indirect bearing on the State election.

The Unitarian Club tackled the question on Monday night at its banquet. Favoring municipal ownership were Gavin McNab and Frank H. Gould. Against it were John P. Irish and Frank J. Symmes, head of the Merchants' Association. Irish was at his best and made the oratorical impression of the evening. Symmes argued as he has done before and made a fairly good showing for his side. In favor of public ownership Gould made rather a failure, showing no great familiarity with his subject. McNab was far better. Considering the fact that he was gathering his facts and figures at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the day of debate, he made an able and logical address.

A week or so ago the word was passed, "Jeffries has committed suicide." Up and down the night, the story went like wildfire. Some of the wise men in the newspaper offices concluded that it was a paper somewhere, sending out a false dispatch in order to locate a leak in its news service, for it did not take a great while to ascertain that Jeffries was not dead. But no paper made mention of any such ruse.

This week the sudden cry was "Governor Gage has been shot!" Jeremiah Gage was out knocking Andrew right and left to get even on Burns. As a consequence, Braunhart, who is violently anti-railroad, seems to have a very good chance for election, though the Examiner is not supporting him.

Andrew is distinctly a Burns man. He is associated with the Colonel in the Shasta Water Company and in your race-track affairs. So bitter is the war between the Herrin-Crimmins following and the Burns men that the former are out knocking Andrew right and left to get even on Burns. As a consequence, Braunhart, who is violently anti-railroad, seems to have a very good chance for election, though the Examiner is not supporting him.

An investigation showed that those sudden hoaxes were the frolics of the messenger boys. Sent all over the city, they dropped a word here and a word there and soon had the entire city by the ears. When the newspapers got to rushing things the little rascals lay back and chuckled in their joy. They are apt to start an "extra" on the streets some day with one of their thoughtless joshes.

Evidently the Shylocks who discount warrants of the water front employes expect a serious shake-up in that direction as the result of the row between Burns and Herrin. No one is quicker to scent trouble than the money-lenders. It is their business to keep posted as to what is going on. So when Max Goldberg the other day said, "I'll not discount another warrant, and I'll not lend any water front employee a cent," there was an opening of eyes and a bracing for the shock of the shake-up.

The politicians have been expecting something to drop down there on the front ever since they ascertained that the row between Burns and Herrin was not a bluff. Herrin controls the Harbor Commission, and there is a notion that the Burns men will be decapitated as soon as the head of the Southern Pacific's law department returns from the East. Of course, the really fat jobs are safe enough for a time, for the wharfingers and collectors are four-year men, who can only be removed for cause, with charges filed and an investigation. Still, I suppose that if the war gets hot enough it would not be impossible to make charges and get rid of the Burns men in that way. In any event, Max Goldberg told the needy water front employees that he would cash no more warrants for them, and Max is very wise.

The bankers of this city have been in a great hurry this week over the demand for money from New York. There was the mischief of a pinch on Wall street, and for a time there were indications of a money panic. Wild appeals for coin were sent to San Francisco, and a lot of good California gold was sent to New York at 15 to 18 percent with the finest kind of securities behind the loans.

"They've tied it over, this time," said young Marco Hellman, of the Nevada Bank to a friend, "but no one can tell what day they'll not be able to tide it over, and then there'll be a money panic."

Mr. Strauss was a director of the Nevada National Bank and the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company.

Up to the 1st of January, this year, he was a director in the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company.

The funeral will take place on Monday morning from the Strauss residence, 621 Leavenworth street, the interment being in the Home of Peace Cemetery.

MANY ESCAPED
INSTANT DEATH

NO RISKS

You can buy your glasses here with the feeling that you are running no risks. We have glasses at all prices, and we guarantee that they are absolutely the best that can be produced for the money. It's hard to see why any folks can be content to risk their eyesight when the best optical work can be had so moderately.

F. W. Laufer
EXPERT OPTICIAN

N.W. Cor. Washington and 10th Sts.

Union Labor!

J. J. EAGEN COMPANY

Dealers in

LUMBER, IRON, COAL,

HAY AND GRAIN

Main Office: 544 Webster St.

Tel. Grove 215

Yards and Docks: Foot of Webster St.

Opposite City Wharf

Guaranteed Clear Redwood Shingles...

.....Delivered $2.00 per 1000

Redwood Lumber.....

.....Delivered $15.00 per 1000

Other goods delivered below market rate

TERRIFIC STORMS IN THE SOUTH

Nippon Maru Has a Rough Trip Across the Pacific.

Wild Scenes Were Witnessed Below the Decks.

THOUGHT THE BOAT WOULD GO DOWN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The steamer Nippon Maru arrived in port today from the Orient after passing through two of the worst storms that have visited the South Pacific in many years.

Passengers declare that their experience was something fearful and that on more than one occasion they thought that their last hour had come.

Passengers on stories of wild scenes down below decks when the first typhoon raged, and the scenes in the steerage, where the Chinese and Japanese were cooped up, begged an ascertaining reporter.

The Orientals were panic-stricken and only the most vigilant care on the part of the officers prevented a riot.

The passengers were congratulating themselves over their escape when the Nippon Maru rode into the second typhoon.

Scenes that accompanied the first storm were again witnessed and, if anything, the second was even worse.

The passengers were exceedingly grateful when they reached Honolulu.

CORNER STONE OF DICKMAN STUDIO

OAKLAND PEOPLE WILL ATTEND THE LAYING AT MONTEREY TOMORROW.

A party of the friends of C. J. Dickman, a former Oakland artist, will leave tonight on a special car for Monterey, where they go to lay the cornerstone of the new studio, considered to be one of the finest on the coast, which Mr. Dickman is building in that city. Among those who will make up the party are Dr. J. M. Dunn, Edward H. Hamilton, James Graham, D. V. Graham, W. H. Sims, H. H. Davis, Albert Heckmann, Herman Oelrichs, Noble Eaton, Riley Harding, Harry Dimond, E. H. Dimond, W. H. Dimond, William Hopkins, Vale Baken, Bank Somers and Judge Melvin. The cornerstone will be laid tomorrow morning.

NO SMALL POX IN OAKLAND

There is not now a single case of small pox in the city. The last case, that of a school boy, Frank Biebel, of 517 Thirty-sixth street, was declared out of quarantine by the health officials this morning and now the city is entirely free from the dreaded disease.

During the last two months there had been an unusually large number of small pox cases reported to the Health Office. The largest number of one house was ten cases at 535 Thirty-sixth street.

STUDENTS' CASE SET FOR THURSDAY

Winfield Reed and M. P. McCartney, the Berkeley students who are charged with malicious mischief for having been connected with the recent scandal at the University, were brought before Judge Quinn this morning and their cases were continued until next Thursday morning.

Reed was the student who pulled the air brake on the eventful night while McCartney is accused of tearing down posters. Both are out on bail.

PROHIBITIONISTS DISCUSS CAMPAIGN.

There was a meeting of Prohibitionists this afternoon in Fraternal Hall on Washington street, at which, among others, there was present Theodore Kanouse of Los Angeles.

The advisability of putting a prohibition ticket in this county during the coming campaign was discussed, but no action was taken. The matter will be further considered at a meeting which will be held at the same place tonight.

WALSH
Who is WALSH?
He is a member of the firm of
Wm. Walsh & Co.
OF THE JUNCTION GROCERY
—AT—17th Center and Peralta Sts.
The grocer of West Oakland.

This act alone is evidence that they have dealt fairly with all their patrons.

Telephone James 1941.

GEN. MILES IN SAN FRANCISCO

HE HAS VERY LITTLE TO SAY ABOUT HIS FUTURE PLANS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Lieutenant-General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A., arrived in San Francisco this morning, accompanied by his aide, Colonel Marion P. Maus, Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Maus. The General reached the Palace Hotel shortly before 11 o'clock, his private car having been attached to the regular Los Angeles train.

"I have not a thing that has not already been published to tell any one," said the General. "I am on my way to the Philippines and will sail from here on the United States transport Thomas on October 1. On my way I have been inspecting the Pacific Coast defenses from Puget Sound to San Diego.

"What do you think of the fortifications as far as you have gone?" he was asked.

"Oh, they are very interesting," the General replied dryly.

It was learned from the General that the time between now and the sailing of the Thomas will be spent in a thorough inspection of the defenses of army property in San Francisco, and on Monday or Tuesday a general review will be held of all the troops now stationed at the Presidio. Major General Hughes, commander of the Department of California, was one of the first to call on his senior officer to renew an old acquaintance and learn what the latter's plans were.

"I cannot tell how long I will be away in the Philippines," said General Miles, in closing the interview. "That depends entirely on how I find things. I may be there for thirty or forty days or even longer."

GENERAL ALGER IS SURE OF ELECTION

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 27.—Dr. J. B. Kennedy, manager of Dexter M. Ferry's campaign for the United States Senate, announced this afternoon that Mr. Ferry had been withdrawn from the contest.

General R. A. Alger's election to the United States Senate is now considered practically assured.

CHANGE MADE IN CAPITAL SHOPS

NEW FOREMAN WILL TAKE CHARGE OF THE MEN AT CAPITAL.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 27.—A notice was posted in the railroad shops today announcing that H. G. McInisters had been appointed foreman of the shops to succeed W. C. Pitch. The notice announced that the change would take effect to day.

Mr. Pitch is one of the oldest employees in the service of the Southern Pacific Company, having had charge of the car painting department for a great many years.

Mr. Pitch went to Boston several weeks ago to attend the Master Car Builders' Convention then in session in that city. He was elected president of the association.

McMasters, who succeeds Pitch, is said to be a recent arrival from the East.

Benjamin Welch, one of the veterans of the Southern Pacific Company, was recently relieved from his position of master car builder, a place which he had filled for about forty years, to make room for a younger man.

TELLS WHY HE SHOT HIMSELF

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 27.—A hard-headed ranch hand named Armstrong attempted suicide at Tehachapi last night. He announced some weeks ago that he proposed to hereafter lead a sober life or give it up. Yesterday the craving for liquor overcame him and he proceeded to carry out his determination. Pointing a pistol at his forehead, he fired point blank, but the bullet struck the frontal bone and was deflected, coming out above the ear. The only effect of that shot was to sober Armstrong instantly and he is about today saying that he intends to give himself another trial.

GOV. GAGE TO SPEAK IN THE SOUTH

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 27.—Governor Gage is expected to open the Republican campaign in Bakersfield early in October. Al Lindley one of the delegates to the State Convention, had an interview with the Governor in San Francisco yesterday and got his promise to come here.

ANOTHER VOLCANO IN FULL ERUPTION.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A special dispatch from Rome, after confirming the reports that Stromboli has been in full eruption for some time says:

"The night scene was grand, but terrifying. Lava streamed down the mountain sides seaward, while huge boulders were hurled from the crater to a great height, falling into the sea fully two and a half miles from the shore."

The director of the observatory at Mount Aetna says there has been no eruption in Sicily, but that probably there has been a submarine eruption between Stromboli and Sicily.

"One hundred and fifty corpses have been recovered at Modica. Hundreds of victims were drowned in the open country."

J. J. HILL AT COUNTY FAIR

NOTED RAILROAD PRESIDENT SAYS SOME GOOD THINGS TO PEOPLE.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 27.—In an address at the Grant County Fair at Elbow Lake last evening, President J. J. Hill of the Great Northern Railway and of the Northern Securities Company, said:

"Your chairman said that there are a great many people apprehensive of the great industrial enterprises which are being carried on, and well they may be. There are so called industrial enterprises whose only industry is to run printing presses to print shares of stock. I tell you if there is no harm in an enterprise, if there are five or ten of them that are good, there is no bad in them, and when you put them together there is no bad in the entire mass. But if the object is to get something for nothing, to get something that does not belong to them, to get money out of another man's pocket, the money he has worked for, and to put it into their own—if that is the object it is all wrong, but some of these great enterprises are absolutely sound and right."

Continuing, Mr. Hill said:

"There are people advocate, our President advocates, running every day over Congress, what sort of a Congress would we have after a while if all the business of the country were turned over to it? That is the object it is all wrong, but some of these great enterprises are absolutely sound and right."

"What do you think of the fortifications as far as you have gone?" he was asked.

"Oh, they are very interesting," the General replied dryly.

It was learned from the General that the time between now and the sailing of the Thomas will be spent in a thorough inspection of the defenses of army property in San Francisco, and on Monday or Tuesday a general review will be held of all the troops now stationed at the Presidio. Major General Hughes, commander of the Department of California, was one of the first to call on his senior officer to renew an old acquaintance and learn what the latter's plans were.

"I cannot tell how long I will be away in the Philippines," said General Miles, in closing the interview. "That depends entirely on how I find things. I may be there for thirty or forty days or even longer."

GENERAL ALGER IS SURE OF ELECTION

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 27.—Dr. J. B. Kennedy, manager of Dexter M. Ferry's campaign for the United States Senate, announced this afternoon that Mr. Ferry had been withdrawn from the contest.

General R. A. Alger's election to the United States Senate is now considered practically assured.

UNUSUAL CLAIM OF HIGH PRIEST

KATHERINE TINGLEY SOUGHT TO RETAIN BOOKS AFTER BEING REPUDIATED.

The suit brought by Mrs. Katherine Tingley, head of the Theosophical Society, in the United States against the Oakland Theosophical Society for the recovery of $900 worth of books was dropped for lack of prosecution on Mrs. Tingley's part.

Her complaint Mrs. Tingley sets up the rather queer claim that the books of the Oakland society belonged to her by virtue of her being the chief priestess of the order in the United States.

The local Theosophist declined to recognize Mrs. Tingley's claims and declined further to place themselves under her jurisdiction. The result of the secession was the suit brought to obtain the books.

Mrs. Tingley has achieved world-wide fame owing to having installed herself at Point Loma in a temple which in Oriental fashion rivals the Buddhist temple of India.

Mr. Pitch went to Boston several weeks ago to attend the Master Car Builders' Convention then in session in that city. He was elected president of the association.

McMasters, who succeeds Pitch, is said to be a recent arrival from the East.

Benjamin Welch, one of the veterans of the Southern Pacific Company, was recently relieved from his position of master car builder, a place which he had filled for about forty years, to make room for a younger man.

CANTEEN BUILDINGS FOR ENLISTED MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Major-General R. P. Hughes has requested the War Department to make an appropriation for three post exchanges or canteen buildings at the Presidio, to be used by enlisted men.

SUPERINTENDENT GIVES UP POSITION

MANILA, Sept. 27.—Fred Atkinson, superintendent of the Philippine schools, has resigned. The resignation takes effect January 1, 1903.

BERKELEY BOYS WIN AT FOOTBALL

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—The Berkeley boys beat the Polytechnic High School of San Francisco at football today by a score of 10 to 0.

WILL BE TRIED ON LIBEL CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Dr. W. S. Thorne and Dr. Dudley Tait, accused by Dr. Carl W. Von Tiedemann of criminal libel as the result of a printed interview, appeared before Police Judge Cabaniss this afternoon.

Dr. Thorne demanded a trial by jury and the case was set for trial on October 15, upon motion of Attorney Black for the defense. Dr. Tait waived a jury trial and demanded an immediate hearing by the court. The latter trial was set for Monday next.

Both gentlemen declined absolutely to discuss the case and stated that plenty of explanatory matter would be brought out at both trials.

YOUNG GIRL DIES OF HER INJURIES.

SAN JOSE, Sept. 27.—Ethelyn Marion Stanfield, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Stanfield of Campbell, died last night from injuries received yesterday. She was assisting her mother about the house when her clothes got on fire from the gasoline stove. Mrs. Stanfield who was in ill health, fainted before she could render any assistance. The girl ran out of doors for help, but no assistance came. She was so terribly burned that death came in a few hours.

Cheng Chuk Kwan, a Chinese woman of wealth and education, is going on a tour of the world and will be the first foreigner who has ever traveled so much. She has prepared such a venture. She has no money to pay for her passage, but she has assistance.

"Hundreds of victims were drowned in the open country."

CAPTAIN WAS WEARY OF LIFE

HE MADE HIS WILL AND THEN TURNED ON THE GAS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Frederick C. Cavallo, a retired captain in the British merchant marine, ended his life at a lodging house here today by inhaling gas.

It appears that the deceased came from Sussex, England, and an instrument, evidently written just before death, disposing of his property, worth many thousands of pounds, was found in his room.

Decided was in ill-health and despondent.

From all that can be learned Cavallo came here recently from Toronto.

INVESTIGATED THE LABOR CONDITIONS

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 27.—President Mayer, of the Western Federation of Miners, said here today that the condition of the companies in the Bitter Creek, B. C., districts from which place he had just returned, is as follows:

"The miners are the ones to investigate. They permit the men no privileges and allow no business except under their direction. They even exercise a censorship. Mr. Mayer declared, on what their employees shall read.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 27.—An unknown man was run over by a train and killed midway between Florin and Elk Grove last night. The man, evidently a tramp, was about 30 years of age, and about 5 feet, 10 inches tall. No papers were found on the body, including two nickels and a number of foreign coins was the only things on the body.

RICH STRIKE MADE AT GRASS VALLEY

GRASS VALLEY, Sept. 27.—One of the richest strikes ever made in this mining district is reported at a mine near this city. It is current rumor that a strike of tellurium was made assaying $5,000 to the ton, but the company officials maintain strict silence on the subject and the report cannot be verified.

ADMIRAL EVANS GOES UP YANG TSE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans, second in command on the Asiatic station, and shortly to assume supreme command of the United States naval forces in the East, has been sent up the Yang Tse River to investigate and report on the conditions in the provinces of China, which according to reports from Minister Conger are about to become the scenes of another Boxer uprising.

The Navy Department received a cablegram from Admiral Evans today stating that he had transferred his command from the battleship Kentucky to the gunboat Yang Tse and sailed from Foochow bound for Ichang, which is the highest point in the great Yang Tse river to which vessel's draught can go.

Ichang lies about 800 miles from the mouth of the Yang Tse and is in the province of Hupeh. About 100 miles to the west is the eastern border of Sze Chuan province, in which the massacre of native Christians and the destruction of the churches erected by the missionaries occurred.

In concluding, he said: "The cause of the strike in the arrant region will be sustained until the end. If I have anything more to say, it will be given out later."

It is reported here that the meeting will be more important than the officials will admit and further that a number of labor leaders will be at the conference before it is over.

NOTED CHINESE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Among the passengers on the Nippon Maru from the Orient today were Chia Wa Ching and Kwon Dong Kim, two Chinese diplomats bound for Washington. General Wm. S. Smith, a civil engineer of Chicago, was on board also. Other passengers were Dr. Jonas and wife of Washington, who are on their bridal tour around the world. O. Majelice, a Japanese banker, was also a passenger.

Jim Dumps' good wife was much distressed because her cook went off "to rest." "Great guns! I have to cook!" she said. Said Jim: "Don't cook—have 'Force' instead!" The children all agreed with him And passed their plates to "Sunny Jim."

"Force"

The Ready-to-Serve Cereal is the minute-man of the pantry.

Scales of wheat and malt—eaten cold.

A Hot-Weather Delight.

It delight to me these hot days. It's always ready for every meal, with fruit for lunch, and in a simple pudding for dinner. We eat it just aves me lots of work and trouble.

(Name furnished on application.)

CITY COUNCIL HAS FIXED THE LEVY.

Interesting Discussion About Various Items in the Ordinance.

At the second meeting of the City Council on Tuesday evening the ordinance establishing the tax levy for the ensuing year was introduced. It provides for a tax of $100 of tax per acre on all city limits.

It was supported by Councilmen Bishop, Cadman, Cuvelier and Schaffer.

The negative was supported by Councilmen Fitzgerald, Wixson, NIGHT SCHOOLS.

When Deputy Clerk Edward Holland started in to read the items in the apportionment, Councilman Cuvelier asked that they be read slowly.

The request was complied with and Mr. Cuvelier checked off each item as he read it.

When the apportionment for the School Fund was reached, President Schaffer said that he thought it would be desirable to have the Board of Education understand that a levy of one cent had been specially intended by the Council for the maintenance of evening schools.

Mr. Cuvelier suggested that perhaps that levy or amount ought to be put in the General Fund.

Councilman Cuvelier said that he did not think that the Council would dictate to the Board of Education as to how the money appropriated for them should be spent.

Auditor Schaffer said that he was positive that if the warrants should be drawn against an evening school fund, they will not be honored.

Mr. Courtney wanted to know if there were no way by means of which the evening schools could be provided for in the ordinance.

President Schaffer said that if the Council should adopt a resolution that it was the desire of that body to have night schools provided with the amount allowed, the Board of Education could more easily come in and ask for more funds for those schools.

This seemed to be the opinion of the members of the Council present, viz., that no money for evening schools save that provided for in the levy for the School Fund would be made available for evening schools.

MR. DORNIN'S VIEWS.

Mr. Dornin rose to a question of privilege and spoke as follows regarding his views on the tax levy:

"The time has arrived when I must cross the bridge to meet you on the question of this tax levy."

"I appreciate, as well as any of you, the dilemma we are facing. I realize, too, that it is the fault of this Council that we are in the predicament that makes resort to special levies necessary. Had we conservured our opportunity and funds which, from time to time, are placed at our disposal, there would be no need for levying special taxes. The $1.00 limit would, to my mind, be ample if used judiciously."

"As I said before, I appreciate the gravity of the situation, but as I am not responsible for the condition, so will I not be a party to the course that you are about to take to extricate yourselves from the predicament. I understand fully the gravity of what I have said and of what I am about to say."

"I have said that I believe the $1.00 limit enough to meet the requirements of this city, not only enough, but sufficient to permit many needed improvements, if properly husbanded. That the funds are trifled away is easily demonstrated by reference to the amount allowed under the head of Fire Department—$24 hydrants at $60.00 each, $3440.

"I have made diligent inquiry to find out how much water was used per annum by the city. For the present, I will devote myself to that cleared up to the Fire Department. I find that for the fiscal year, July 1, 1901, to June 30, 1902, there were 208 alarms, the greatest number recorded for any one year. The aggregate number of hours that the several pieces of apparatus were in service from sound of alarm to the sum of $25,925 for nothing, excepting the Contra Costa Water Company for account of no services rendered by them."

"There are 524 hydrants cost in place say $50 each; $24 at $50, $1200; allowing ten per cent per annum per Hart decision, $2620; maximum value of water that could possibly have been pumped in the time engines were in service from sound of alarm until returned to house, $2895. This is far in excess of the amount that was used. Rental of hydrants, $2620; making a total of $5,515. The amount demanded is $31,440.

In other words, the Council has made a loan to the Contra Costa Water Company for account of no services rendered by them."

"The reduction in franchise assessment (tax), $967,000, at $1.14 per 100, $1,365; for water not used, $25,925; total, $37,290.

"To overcome this you propose a special levy of $45,000. Gentlemen, I, for one, cannot stand for it."

"For fear you may challenge my statement that the $1.00 limit is sufficient, I have the following (Breed's) estimate: $9,548; additions, $44,730; reductions, $1,222; balance, $608; total, $89,066.

"Commerce Avenue sewer, $3,000; Culvert Forty-ninth street, sewer, $3,000; Twelfth street dam, $6,000; making a total of $93,306. The revenue other than taxes, State and County, was $26,150; licenses and other taxes, $102,122; to raise by levy, $500,184; less assessed valuation of city, $4,500,000, at 1 per cent, $45,000; excess to prune or raise by special levy $50,184.

"The Contra Costa Water Company were as follows: Reduced assessment in round figures, $10,000; rental to hydrants (impossible to use), $25,000; total, $35,025.

"Should the Contra Costa Water Company claim that they were entitled to the sum of $25,925 for nothing, excepting the Contra Costa Water Company for account of no services rendered by them."

"The Council then adjourned."

cent to make up the sum allowed by this Hart decision. I have only to say that during and since the suit the Water Company claimed to be delivering in Oakland an average daily amount of 13,000,000 gallons; that by the introduction of metres this has been reduced 500,000 gallons, leaving net 12,500,000 gallons. Assume that this is exact and that the water delivered 10,000,000 gallons at 33 cents per 100 cubic feet or 44 cents per 1000 gallons, which would equal $4,400 per day; $132,000 per month, or $1,584,000 per year. Dividing this by two, we get $792,000. This would be at the rate of 16 1/2 cents per 100 cubic feet, which is little more than half the lowest metre rate allowed by the Water Ordinance.

"You will observe that at the reduced consumption and at the low rate of 16 1/2 cents per 100 cubic feet they would still receive $1,584,000 in excess of the amount allowed by Hart, so I cannot feel that any injustice would be done the Water Company by cutting down the city bill to the basis of amount of water actually used.

"The total water bill, as above, $63,610, would nearly pay annual installment on a $3,000 bond issue. It would pay six months' running expenses of the Los Angeles water plant, including minor repairs, for a city of 125,000 inhabitants.

"Gentlemen, you are banking too much on the good nature of the public. They will pay the extra tax. I hope they will, I am sure they will. They have too much regard for the school to allow it to be crippled on account of the acts of this body. In voting as I do, I am simply registering my protest, as a Councilman, against the irregular proceedings of this body."

DORNIN'S ASSISTANCE.

After Mr. Dornin had read his speech, President Schaffer asked:

"What suggestion did you offer, Mr. Dornin, regarding this matter?"

Dornin—When the first vote on an item in the tax levy was made, you asked that one man be appointed to inspect his carts. Of these steam engines were in use during the year from moment it was introduced until they were returned to house as follows: Engine No. 1, 33 1/2 hours; Engine No. 2, 37 hours; Engine No. 3, 19 1/2 hours; Engine No. 4, 11 1/2 hours; Engine No. 5, 51 1/2 hours; Engine No. 6, 14 hours; Engine No. 7, 36 hours; Engine No. 8, 33 1/2 hours, which is equivalent to one steam engine working 24 1/2 hours.

"The maximum pumping capacity of one engine, in gallons, per minute, is 40 gallons. Chief Bill says it is a big estimate. The maximum pumping capacity of one engine, in gallons, per hour, is 27,000, making the maximum gallons pumped in 24 1/2 hours, assuming they were pumping every minute of the time from sound of alarm until returned to houses, is 6,581,250, or at 7 1/2 gallons to the cubic foot, 877,500 cubic feet.

"But, assume that the entire 877,500 cubic feet was paid for at maximum rate of 33 cents per 100 cubic feet, the value would be $2,893.75. The amount demanded by the Water Company, $24 hydrants, at $60 each per year, is $33,440.

"I am told that the past fiscal year may be taken as a fair average, because in fiscal year from July 1, 1900, to June 30, 1901, the engines were in use only 135 1/2 hours.

"This includes the time from sound of alarm until returned to house, all false alarms, and time idle at fire.

"And in fiscal year from July 1, 1889, to June 30, 1900, the engines were in use only 145 1/2 hours.

"For years prior to this we have only the records for the entire department, engines not being kept separate. The following are the total hours for all engines for year 1900-1901, 440, engines, 1839; 1901-1902, 500, engines, 1839; 1902-1903, 3653, engines, 1834; 1898-1900, 380, engines.

"Now, this might go to tax-payers we are getting the benefit, but they are not, for we find ourselves in the predicament of having to prune all departments to such an extent that they are crippled, and we are forced to resort to illegal, or at least (what should be unnecessary) special levies to raise funds to secure not only needed improvements, but also to meet current expenses."

"VOWS HE'S NO CANDIDATE.

Dornin—I want you to understand that this is the same thing that was done by the Council before?

Dornin—Yes.

Dornin—I am nothing new then.

Dornin—I told that. We have to fight it sooner or later.

Possible Conflagration.

Bishop—I consider that Mr. Dornin has said a compliment to the building up of the Fire Department, which has lived here thirty-two years, and has never witnessed a conflagration yet, not alone because we have a Fire Department, but also because we have water and other apparatus which the Fire Department has provided by the Council. One big conflagration would wipe out the whole of the amount in question. It is the protection which these facilities give which makes it safe to live in the city.

Dornin—That is paid for out of the water company fund, which is furnished in another way.

Precedents.

Boyer—I am not a candidate for any office.

Schafer—What Mr. Bishop says is hard to the point. Mr. Dornin does not intend to run for office again, but he has been a member of the Council for three years and has never witnessed a conflagration yet, not alone because we have a Fire Department, but also because we have water and other apparatus which the Fire Department has provided by the Council. One big conflagration would wipe out the whole of the amount in question. It is the protection which these facilities give which makes it safe to live in the city.

Dornin—I am not a candidate for any office.

Wallace—I am not a candidate for any office.

Schafer—What Mr. Bishop says is hard to the point. Mr. Dornin does not intend to run for office again, but he has been a member of the Council for three years and has never witnessed a conflagration yet, not alone because we have a Fire Department, but also because we have water and other apparatus which the Fire Department has provided by the Council. One big conflagration would wipe out the whole of the amount in question. It is the protection which these facilities give which makes it safe to live in the city.

Dornin—I am not a candidate for any office.

Bishop—I am not a candidate for any office.

Cuvelier—I am not a candidate for any office.

Schaffer—I am not a candidate for any office.

Dornin—I am not a candidate for any office.

Wixson—I am not a candidate for any office.

Nays—Dornin, 1.

Absent—Fitzgerald, Wixson.

NIGHT SCHOOLS.

When Deputy Clerk Edward Holland started in to read the items in the apportionment, Councilman Cuvelier asked that they be read slowly.

The request was complied with and Mr. Cuvelier checked off each item as he read it.

When the apportionment for the School Fund was reached, President Schaffer said that he thought it would be desirable to have the Board of Education understand that a levy of one cent had been specially intended by the Council for the maintenance of evening schools.

Mr. Cuvelier suggested that perhaps that levy or amount ought to be put in the General Fund.

Councilman Cuvelier said that he did not think that the Council would dictate to the Board of Education as to how the money appropriated for them should be spent.

Auditor Schaffer said that he was positive that if the warrants should be drawn against an evening school fund, they will not be honored.

Mr. Courtney wanted to know if there were no way by means of which the evening schools could be provided for in the ordinance.

President Schaffer said that if the Council should adopt a resolution that it was the desire of that body to have night schools provided with the amount allowed, the Board of Education could more easily come in and ask for more funds for those schools.

This seemed to be the opinion of the members of the Council present, viz., that no money for evening schools save that provided for in the levy for the School Fund would be made available for evening schools.

MR. DORNIN'S VIEWS.

Mr. Dornin rose to a question of privilege and spoke as follows regarding his views on the tax levy:

"The time has arrived when I must cross the bridge to meet you on the question of this tax levy."

"I appreciate, as well as any of you, the dilemma we are facing. I realize, too, that it is the fault of this Council that we are in the predicament that makes resort to special levies necessary. Had we conservured our opportunity and funds which, from time to time, are placed at our disposal, there would be no need for levying special taxes. The $1.00 limit would, to my mind, be ample if used judiciously."

"As I said before, I appreciate the gravity of the situation, but as I am not responsible for the condition, so will I not be a party to the course that you are about to take to extricate yourselves from the predicament. I understand fully the gravity of what I have said and of what I am about to say."

"I have said that I believe the $1.00 limit enough to meet the requirements of this city, not only enough, but sufficient to permit many needed improvements, if properly husbanded. That the funds are trifled away is easily demonstrated by reference to the amount allowed under the head of Fire Department—$24 hydrants at $60.00 each, $3440.

"I have made diligent inquiry to find out how much water was used per annum by the city. For the present, I will devote myself to that cleared up to the Fire Department. I find that for the fiscal year, July 1, 1901, to June 30, 1902, there were 208 alarms, the greatest number recorded for any one year. The aggregate number of hours that the several pieces of apparatus were in service from sound of alarm to the sum of $25,925 for nothing, excepting the Contra Costa Water Company for account of no services rendered by them."

"The Council then adjourned."

SECOND WEEK AT THE NOVELTY THEATER.

The first week of the Novelty Theater on Broadway, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, has been most successful. It has been crowded every afternoon and evening at each of the performances given. The lobby has been thronged with people each night, all anxious to gain admission to the pretty auditorium which Manager Lubelski provides for his patrons. The program has been a success all this week, but the audience has been a remarkably fine one, because all the performers are of the grade from which Orpheum stars are selected. There has been a great deal of complimentary talk all night, and there never has been a Council that has not been crippled. I think the people, when they read the ordinance and know the time we do, will be compelled to pay the tax this year, and pay it cheerfully. I am going to vote for the ordinance.

The Council then adjourned.

SECOND WEEK AT THE NOVELTY THEATER.

The first week of the Novelty Theater on Broadway, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, has been most successful. It has been crowded every afternoon and evening at each of the performances given. The lobby has been thronged with people each night, all anxious to

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Tribune Publishing Company William E. Dargie, President

THE PERIL OF WOMANHOOD.

The disgraceful death of Nicholas Fish, the millionaire banker of New York who was killed in a saloon brawl, throws a side-light on the habit women have fallen into of indulging in intoxicating liquors. In recent years this habit has grown alarmingly. In former times women drank wine sparingly at meals, and it was considered discreditable to drink stronger intoxicants, especially in the presence of men. It was considered disgraceful for a woman to enter a saloon, much less drink in one.

This old-fashioned rule has sadly changed of late years. The "Ladies' Entrance" is a common sign at the side doors, and it is common for women of respectable families to be seen going in and coming out. To add to the evil, women are falling into the habit of promiscuous drinking and making saloon acquaintances. The Fish murder illustrates this.

If the investigations of the police are to be relied upon, Fish was killed in a common saloon brawl, the presence of the women being purely accidental and having no connection with the tragedy. The three females were supposedly respectable. They certainly were not of the class that is to be supposed to frequent the rear rooms of saloons. All of them were married. One of them is described as young and pretty, and the wife of a well-to-do business man. She had been married about a year. One of the others was an older sister.

Now what were these three married women doing in the background of a saloon in the tenderloin? As it appears neither of them ever saw Fish before or knew who he was. He came in drunk, and they drank with the intoxicated stranger. This carries its own moral. The inference is that the women went there to drink and were not entirely sober, for they had no male companions, and met the two parties to the row there entirely by accident. There was no amour, only the dirtiness caused by women and men drinking together indiscriminately in a saloon.

When the bibulous habit leads women to frequent public drinking places, the barriers of propriety are broken down, and the ordinary safeguards usually thrown around the sex are cast to the winds. When a woman has reached the point of carousing with strange men—or any man, for that matter—she has passed a point far down the road to destruction. She is inviting every indignity that can be offered to a woman, and under such conditions as make her practically helpless and place her beyond the pale of sympathy. It all comes from the habit of social drinking that has grown up among women of late years.

A FOOLISH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL.

A school principal in Ohio has been compelled to resign because he compelled some white girls to kiss colored girls with whom they had quarreled. The dismissal was just, not because of the color of the girls kissed, but because he violated an inalienable personal right. He had no shadow of right to compel anybody to kiss anybody else. Kissing is a matter of personal choice, not of school discipline. It may be indulged in to the extent of violating the rules of decorum, and in such event the principal would have been justified in adopting corrective measures, but to compel scholars to kiss others as a measure of discipline is an arbitrary and disgusting abuse of power.

Probably this particular principal compelled the kissing to show his contempt and reprobation of race prejudice, but does anyone believe he made race prejudice less strong or produced a more harmonious feeling in his school? But whatever his object, the kissing business was inexcusable. Any parent would feel indignant at having their children compelled to kiss other children. It is an outrage on personal rights, an infringement of the personal prerogative with which all are endowed. It was not only an abuse of authority, but was in amazing bad taste, and exhibited a lack of discretion that indicated the principal's unfitness for the place he held. The case would have been no whit better or worse if he had compelled colored girls to kiss white girls against their will. It is not a question of color, it is a question of personal right.

It is said the Texas Republicans are patching up a fusion with the Populists on Congressmen. Such an alliance would be an unholy one. Similar alliances have twice been made in Texas, and the result in each case has been disastrous defeat at the polls and party demoralization. Temporary coalitions of discordant and antagonistic elements on the basis of division of the spoils of office have never conducted to political morality or good government. They are marriages of convenience that tend toward political prostitution. No party can afford to sacrifice its principles to gain mere success at the polls. Victory in such cases brings no substantial reward for the parties to the deal, and it frequently happens that great policies are retarded or even sacrificed that party names may be called at the pie counter. No party can be enduring and successful in the long run that does not stand by its principles and its organization.

COOK FOR CLERK.

The County Clerk's office is perhaps the most important office in the local government. It is far and away the most important viewed from a party standpoint. Having control of the court records and the papers relating to litigation and the administration of the estates of deceased persons, a great deal depends upon the fidelity and accuracy with which the County Clerk performs his duties or has them performed by his deputies. Registering the voters is the most important political function in the county. It is of the gravest public concern that a full, fair and honest registration of voters be had.

It may readily be seen that a competent, upright and alert official is required for County Clerk. In John F. Cook the Republicans have nominated such a man. He is thoroughly familiar with every detail of the County Clerk's office, and as Chief Deputy for the past four years has demonstrated his executive capacity and his ability to manage the office in the most thoroughly competent manner. He is not alone faithful in the discharge of his duties. His uniform courtesy and disposition to oblige command him highly to all who have business with the office, every detail of which is admirably managed under his supervision. No man in the county is his superior in the necessary qualifications that a first class County Clerk should possess.

Aside from this, Mr. Cook's record and antecedents are such as command him to the public. He has grown up in the community, and his character is that of a clean, honorable, manly young man of the best type. The great mass of our citizens know him and respect him. Among his personal associates he bears the reputation of being a genial, whole-souled companion who never speaks evil of any one and who sets an excellent example in the matter of conduct.

Mr. Cook is the nominee of the Republican party, to which he has always been faithful. He has always loyally labored for the success of its candidates and principles, and is a highly creditable representative of it in office. He therefore has a claim on the good will and fealty of his party, and it is important that the party should have a staunch, true and faithful representative in the County Clerk's office. Mr. Cook deserves election on his record and his merits, but political as well as personal reasons bespeak for him the vote of every loyal Republican in the county.

ROBBING DEAD MEN.

The collapse of the suit brought by Laura Biggar, the actress, to prove herself the lawful widow of Henry M. Bennett, a deceased millionaire, was rather sudden and dramatic. After putting witnesses on the stand to prove her marriage and the birth of a posthumous child, her attorneys suddenly withdrew the action, only to be arrested with their client on a charge of conspiracy. A conspiracy it clearly is, but it is worse than that, for in carrying out the scheme there has been bribery, perjury and subornation of perjury. In many respects the claim set up by Miss Biggar bears a resemblance to the one set up by Mrs. Craven after the death of Senator Fair. Mrs. Craven had three strings to her bow, whereas the Biggar woman only had two. Mrs. Craven set up a contract marriage, a regular marriage, and deeds independently to a large amount of valuable property. That her whole case was a conspiracy is beyond reasonable doubt. Miss Biggar has been Bennett's mistress and under his will was entitled to receive $250,000, but she greedily craved all the estate of $2,000,000. She must now face a felony charge and may have to enjoy her legacy as best she may within prison walls.

The Hawaiian sugar planters have selected an exceedingly propitious time to ask Congress for the admission of Chinese labor into the islands. These gentlemen enjoy the benefits of tariff protection, but they are not satisfied. They want Chinese cheap labor as well. Their wishes are inadmissible. On the eve of election they are certain to receive scant consideration.

The St. Louis Councilman who sold his vote for $50,000 has turned State's evidence. This exhibition of repentance however, seems due more to anger at some of his associates bungling him out of $45,000 of the price rather than a return to the teachings of virtue. But franchises in St. Louis must be valuable indeed if a vote on them is worth $50,000.

The necessity for operating on the President's leg calls attention anew to the narrow escape from death he had at Pittsfield. When the President pluckily made light of the affair, the fact is now manifest that he received considerable injury.

SILVER FILLINGS, 25c

And all dental operations at the cost of material. Teeth extracted free. Painless methods of operating.

Open Sundays and Evenings

973 Washington Street, corner Tenth, Oakland 2 Taylor St., cor. Golden Gate Av., S. F.

ALAMEDA COUPLE QUIETLY MARRIED IN SAN JOSE.

Miss Ethel Saxton Slips Away to Wed Clarence Richter—News Notes From the Encinal City.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—Yesterday Clarence Richter and Miss Ethel Saxton, of this city made a hurried trip to San Jose, where they were married in the Hall of Records. It was known that the young people had been engaged and the reason for their hasty trip to the Garden City and the subsequent marriage is a mystery to all.

has been operating quite successfully in Alameda during the past few days.

Several valuable dogs have been poisoned, among which was a thoroughbred spaniel owned by Attorney R. B. Tappan. The animal was poisoned while on the property where it was kept. Mr. Tappan is much incensed over the poisoning.

GAFFNEY WILL BE TRIED OCTOBER 1ST.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—John Gaffney, the young number who was arrested yesterday upon a charge of battery preferred by ex-Trustee E. F. Rea, pleaded not guilty to the charge and will be tried for trial on October 1st at 10 a. m.

Gaffney claims that he was first attacked by Rea while the latter claims that the plumber struck him without provocation.

ALAMEDA STUDENT BODY HAS BEEN DISSOLVED.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—Arrangements for the card tournament to be given by the Women's Charitable Association next Friday evening are very nearly completed.

The scorers have been selected for the occasion while forty beautiful prizes have already been donated. The tournament will be conducted on an elaborate scale and is to be given for the purpose of increasing the association's funds.

Much interest is being evinced among the social set in the coming event, which is undoubtedly to be the largest affair of its kind given in Alameda this season. The patrons of the fare, "A Crazy Idea," is indirectly the cause of the action that has been taken.

While the student body has not actually been disbanded it has been denied the privilege of meeting at the school, which amounts to about the same thing. Hitherto the organization was permitted to hold its monthly sessions during one of the study periods. This made it possible for a large gathering, but with this privilege denied it is admitted that members can not be induced to attend meetings away from the school, and that as a consequence the organization has received a setback.

The Associated Students has been in existence for several years. Its object was to regulate the affairs of the student body and adjust the relations between the faculty and the pupils.

After "The Crazy Idea" affair the teachers had a consultation and reached the conclusion that the students were abusing their privilege and that it would be for the best interests of the school and the pupils to take action tending to disband the organization.

A meeting of the students was called Tuesday afternoon, when Dr. Scott announced the action that had been taken, stating that the faculty believed that the meeting of the Associated Students at the High School building during the regular hours of work was detrimental to the school.

MISS ANITA DENKE GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Anita F. Denke recently at her home, 632 Taylor avenue. The occasion was in honor of the young lady's thirteenth birthday anniversary.

The evening proved to be a most enjoyable one, and was passed with the usual games and with music and dancing. The following were among the guests:

Mrs. Raffo, Miss Edna Raffo, Mr. Kirk, Miss Linda, Miss Jim Kirk, Charles Kirk, Miss Marion Kirk, friend of Linda, Mr. Fred Lunn, Miss Ethel Croll, Miss Lulu Hoffman, Miss Flossie Haay, Miss Elizabeth, Peter Petersen, Miss Geraldine, Mrs. Margarette Bush, Paul King Petersen, Miss Anita Denke, Mr. and Mrs. Denke.

BERT LISSNER'S NEW STORE A SUCCESS

Although not yet a month in his new store on Washington street, near Twelfth, Mr. Bert Lissner, the popular goldsmith and jeweler, has already proved that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been devoting some time to comparison between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

between the retail business in general in Oakland and San Francisco, and has found that the trend of business is still northward. Mr. Lissner has been

ANSWER IT HONESTLY

Are the Statements of Oakland Citizens More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is a vital question.

It is fraught with interest to Oakland.

It permits of only one answer.

It cannot be avoided or ignored.

An Oakland citizen speaks here,

Speaks for the welfare of Oakland.

A citizen's statement is reliable.

An utter stranger's doubtful.

Home proof is the best proof.

1111 Lawrence, 160 Seventh street, San Francisco.

"Lawlessness and pain nowhere, the small of a man's back to totally prevents a man from performing work and even when the backache is not so pronounced as to prevent working it certainly is an aggravating annoyance. When in Ecuador, South America, I first noticed the same way my legs were not performing across the loins ensued. Since then other attacks have occurred and I was suffering from one when I noticed

Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our

Oakland papers and went to the Owl

Drug Co.'s store for a box. If the first had helped I never would have bought a second, and if the second had would not brought greater relief. I never thought we could find the treatment.

You can say for me that Doan's Kidney Pills can be depended upon to do exactly as stated."

For sale by all dealers: price 50 cents.

Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Weber Pianos

Possesses every virtue of a high grade Piano.

The stamp of original beauty is shown in its case design.

Its tone is noted for

DIMOND REPUBLICANS TRUE TO THE CORE.

ELOQUENT SPEECHES OF PARTY NOMINEES EVOKE ROUNDS OF APPLAUSE AND HEARTY PLEDGES OF LOYALTY.

The voters of Dimond turned out in force last night and gave the candidates on the Republican ticket one of the most enthusiastic welcomes of the campaign. A pleasing prologue to the oratorical efforts of the candidates was the hospitable invitation of John A. Sanborn to all the nominees to dine with him. The majority of the candidates accepted the invitation. After dinner the nominees proceeded in a body to Fruitville Hall, where they were given a noisy reception in the way of discharge of an ample supply of fireworks.

The features of the evening, aside from the oratory, was the singing of the Elks' Quartet and the torchlight procession of the juvenile Republicans of Dimond.

The meeting was called to order by Frank Storer of the Elmhurst Review.

JUDGE GREENE.

Judge Greene was called upon by the chairman for the opening speech. He spoke as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and fellow-citizens: It is the purpose of the committee in charge of the campaign to acquaint the voters with all the nominees of the Republican party. It is right that it should be so. We are here tonight for the purpose of showing ourselves to the people, whose servants we hope to be."

"I have been favored by the voters of this county in the past with more, no doubt, than I deserve to be. If you find in my twenty-three years of public service things which redound to my credit, I hope they will be sufficient to incline you to return me to office."

"My associates on the bench, who are seeking re-election at your hands, are capable men. The county of Alameda would lose much by not returning them. Both are comparatively young men, and it gives me great pleasure to say that their records on the bench are almost unequalled in the State. I believe the voters of the county will return both Judges Hall and Melvin."

JUDGE HALL.

Judge Hall was then called upon. He spoke of the benefits conferred upon the laboring people by the Republican party and advised them to vote in their interest for the party of prosperity.

ROBERT GREIG.

"Honest Bob" Greig of Berkeley, candidate for County Recorder, was given an ovation when he arose to speak. He made an appeal to the voters to support the entire ticket.

N. K. FOSTER.

Dr. N. K. Foster was then called upon. He spoke of the benefits conferred upon the laboring people by the Republican party and advised them to vote in their interest for the party of prosperity.

GEORGE GRAY.

George Gray, candidate for Public Administrator, then made an appeal to the voters to support the Republican ticket from top to bottom.

ARTHUR FIEDLER.

County Treasurer Arthur Fiedler then made a brief address. He promised a faithful administration of the Treasurer's office if elected. He also paid tribute to the sterling work of Alameda's Gubernatorial candidate, George C. Perdue.

J. CAL EWING.

County Auditor J. Cal Ewing delivered a one-minute talk. He urged that it was necessary for the preservation of the party that all the county officers should be re-elected.

JOHN J. ALLEN.

District Attorney John J. Allen was received with applause. He made a very brief address, commanding the various candidates to the voters.

HARRY LYNCH.

H. C. Lynch, candidate for Superintendent of Schools, then briefly addressed the audience. His speech was upon his hearers the needs of the school and its influence in shaping the destinies of the nation.

SUPERVISOR TALCOTT.

Supervisor Talcott was given such an enthusiastic greeting that there was no time to speak. Talcott said that he owed him nothing, but that he owed them everything. His conduct met with the approval of the voters he asked them to

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

A grievous mistake will be made if

Judge Henry A. Melvin made one of his characteristic speeches and was given an ovation at its conclusion. He said in part:

"There is something inspiring in the spectacle of these young boys parading tonight in behalf of the Republican cause. It shows that they have started right in life. The boys, have early to distinguish that which is good. That reminds me that I learned many things within this township. It was here that I developed my love for public dependencies. The first public office I was elected to was Justice of the Peace of this township. There is a candidate on the Republican ticket for that same office. He has been brought up among you. He is just the same age as I was when I aspired to the office. It has been said of him that he is young. That is a disease he will outgrow. Give him time, give him four years in office, and he will have outlived it.

WHAT THE MEDDLER SAYS ABOUT OUR SMART SET.

Wedding of Miss Yale at St. Paul's This Afternoon Was a Large Affair.

MISS ANITA THOMSON GOES TO THE PEEBLES.

Miss Anita Thomson, the sunshine of the Thomson home at 101 Thirteenth street, left for the East on the Overland Limited at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. She was accompanied by friends and a maid. Miss Thomson goes direct to The Peebles' school in New York. You know The Peebles ranks with Miss Ely's. It is the real thing in swell New York. As a matter of fact you have to make an application long in advance to get into this school. I am told that Miss Anita's wardrobe was simply marvelous. She is to be gone three years. I am glad that Miss Anita is having such good luck. She is one of the very sweetest girls in Oakland and is simply adored by her people. You can imagine how her family felt in parting with the only daughter of the house. They tell me the parting at the train was very sweet. All the girls in Miss Anita's class at Miss Horton's School were dismissed for the morning so they could say good-bye to their popular schoolmate. There were twenty young girls at Sixteenth street station to say farewell. Just as the train pulled out the merry school girls gave the school yell and each handed Miss Anita a sealed letter. It was really a very pretty scene. I am told that the home is very lonesome without the sweet Madonna-faced girl.

SHE ALLOWED MARRIED MEN TO KISS HER.

While talking over the different house parties that had taken place this summer, and gossiping with some of the girls yesterday, I heard some yarns about a very pretty girl that actually made my hair curl; but, if I took stock in all the things I hear whispered about every person I know or ever heard of, I'd certainly be bankrupt as far as friends and acquaintances go, because I shouldn't be sure that I should speak to anyone, barring my grandmother, and a few old maids, too unattractive to be talked about. Therefore, I'm going to tell you only what I actually know to be true about this girl, who was asked to be one of a house party for a month's stay, and forced to return to her wealthy parents at the end of a week, because her host and hostess decided that they could not be responsible for her actions, and told her in as nice a way as possible, that she must go. I don't know what excuse she gave her people for returning so soon. That was probably the least of her troubles. It seems that, from the time of her arrival until the day she was, in the language of the classics, bouned, she spent the time driving about the country with a married man whom she had picked up at a near-by hotel, and in indulging in rather questionable flirtations with others whom she met in the same way; refusing to enjoy herself with the members of the house party or to join in any of their outings. They saw her only at breakfast or dinner, when she entertained the other guests, much to the mortification of her hosts, who had supposed her quite a different sort of girl, with accounts of her drives and the rest, and asked them why it was that all the men would insist upon kissing her!

The climax came upon their return from a hotel dance one evening, when the girl went into a rage and flew at the young daughter of her hostess, for having danced several times with a youth she had cast her own brown eyes upon. The young girl, who had not dreamed of interfering in her friend's flirtation, went to her mother in tears, and the next morning Miss Blank was told that her room was wanted. She packed her trunks, spent several hours driving with the married man, and returned to the house just in time to say good-bye to her hosts, and left without seeming to realize in the least degree, what an impression she was leaving behind her. It does seem a pity that a young girl, starting out in life, will, only because she is young and unbalanced and fond of being flattered, cheapen herself so, that all desirable friends will fight shy of her. What are her people thinking of?

PUT UP MONEY TO BECOME FARMERS.

I saw Dr. Roy Belden and his pretty blonde bride going over on the boat this week, and making for San Rafael or Belvedere. She looked very interesting, and had on a striking red travelling gown, that was very swell indeed.

THE BLONDE BRIDE LOOKED INTERESTING.

I saw Dr. Roy Belden and his pretty blonde bride going over on the boat this week, and making for San Rafael or Belvedere. She looked very interesting, and had on a striking red travelling gown, that was very swell indeed.

DIMES FOR TROUSSEAU X GO TO PAY DUTY.

Mamie Polhemus has received over forty engagement cups since her engagement was announced, some of them set in the silver stands that are so popular now-a-days, and she has also received several vases and other things. You know people do not confine themselves to cups alone when sending engagement presents now. The funny part of it is, only Mamie didn't see the joke the day she was telling me about it, she has received a number of gifts from friends in British Columbia, and has had to pay duty on all of them. She has had to hand over three dollars in exchange for a vase valued at five dollars, and so on, just when she wants every dime to go towards a pretty trousseau.

SCHOOL WHERE GIRLS HAVE BEEN FINISHED.

What a number of the younger boys and girls are starting East to finishing schools and colleges!

Ada Newlands, who is as well known here as in Washington and Nevada, and has just returned to Reno with her uncle, Francis Newlands, after some weeks with Mrs. William Sharon at Piedmont, and Mrs. James Newlands across the bay, expects to start East in a few days to enter a school for a year or two.

Noell De Golia and her mother, Mrs. George E. De Golia, left for New York on Thursday, where Noell will enter Mrs. Scoville's Classical School, where Chrissie Taft, Bessie Gage, Richardson, Ruth Dunham, Lowenberg, and so many of the girls have been finished. The red luncheon Clarisse Lohse gave Noell, at her sister's home, was a very pretty farewell affair, with Anne Mc-

LOOK YOUNG AS YOU CAN AS LONG AS YOU CAN.

The Yale-Bailey wedding has been so written up that there is nothing left for me to tell you, unless something happens at St. Paul's this afternoon for the Driscolls, the Frank

With the Driscolls, the Frank

Mr. Van Wyck and her daughters

Elrath, Cornelia Stratton, Jessie Craig, Letty Barry, Isabelle Kendall, Irene Bangs, Ray Morrow, Bessie Havens, Lillian Reed, Ruth Houghton, Carmen Sutton, Marion Walsh and other High School girls seated about the board. Mabel Pierce, who has returned to Wellesley, was given a ping-pong party, a tea and a card party by her mother, Mrs. Frank Pierce, before she left home. Ivan Langforth, of Berkeley, left on Tuesday for Harvard, where he will study for a doctor's degree.

BRIDAL COUPLE GO TO FIELD OF SHILOH.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston remained away just a week, returning to town on the Wednesday after the wedding, and were the honored guests at a dinner party given by Charles Greenfield, whose engagement to Elsa Cook was announced the day before the Landers-Johnston wedding. By the way, Elsa Cook caught the bride's bouquet, Berne Drown found the ring in the bride's cake, Walter Leeds found the "old maid's thimble" in his piece of cake, and Elsa Cook also found the coin. The bride's table looked very pretty, the cake boxes at that special table being pink. In the shape of hearts, and tied with white ribbon, a tarletan bag of rice being tied on top, with which to shower Berne. Almost a whole cart-load of rice was swept up from the front of the house after the couple had driven away and their carriage was decorated with flowers, ribbons and old shoes. The young couple will leave for Los Angeles very soon, and are to stay with the senior Landers until they can find a home of their own.

Mrs. Hancock Johnston and her son, Hancock, who have since the wedding, been visiting Mrs. Eleanor Martin and Mrs. J. de Barth Sharb, returned to the south either yesterday or the day before. A number of Los Angeles people who came up for the wedding, are still in San Francisco. Mrs. Van Nuys, Miss Van Nuys, Bessie Bonsall and others. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston are looking forward to another trip, for the good-looking bridegroom has had the honor of being invited by the Indiana Shiloh-Park Commission to be present at the dedication of monuments on the Shiloh battlefield, which are being erected in honor of the Indiana regiments which fought in the civil war.

Jack Johnston is the grandson of the famous Southern general, Albert Sidney Johnston, and the young couple have accepted the courtesy extended to them and are planning to be present at the dedication in November.

DIDN'T LIKE HAT OF MRS. O. F. LONG.

"Madame Bavard" has this to say about Amy Requa Long, who leaves for Washington next week, and is also a favorite of mine: "Among all the fair, happy-looking women who gathered at the Landers-Johnston wedding, none were sweeter, none more attractive than my favorite, Mrs. Oscar Requa Long. Just as girlish and as sunny as the popular Amy Requa of seven years ago. If women generally realized what an aid to beauty that look of happiness gives, I feel sure they would cultivate it with a greater degree of attention than they do fair, smooth complexions or glistening, glossy hair. As a beautifier, there is no comparison. Mrs. Long wore a gown of black lace over white taffeta silk. Black lace insertion was set in on both skirt and waist, giving an attractive variety to the usual black gowns. Her hat, frankly, if she will forgive me for saying so, I did not like. I suppose it is decidedly a la mode, but it was not to my taste."

TEA AND FIVE-HANDED EUCHRE ARE COMING.

Everyone is looking forward to the two big events of next week, Mrs. James G. Allen's tea for Mrs. Albert Otis and Mrs. George Augur of Honolulu, and Miss Nannie Jones of Baltimore, a cousin of Mrs. Allen's, which comes off between 4 and 6 o'clock, Wednesday next, and Mrs. Thomas Coghill's big five-handed euchre party, to be given ninety friends on Thursday, the following day. Mrs. Coghill is not entertaining in honor of any one especially, and has not yet decided as to who shall assist her, while those in Mrs. Allen's receiving party will be: Mrs. Harry Meek, Mrs. Francis Dunwoody, Mrs. Egbert Stone, Mrs. Will Meek, Mrs. Rob Knight, Mrs. Arthur Crillin, Mrs. John L. Howard, Mrs. Frederick S. Stratton, Mrs. Allen Babcock, Mrs. Newton Koser, Minnie Dyer, Harriet Hall and Mrs. Frank Allen.

MRS. THOMAS MEIN'S DINNER ON WEDNESDAY.

Mrs. Thomas Mein entertained at dinner on Wednesday night, in honor of the three who are to be Mrs. Allen's honored guests, and all the arrangements were perfect. The table decorations were especially pretty, roses, carnations and begonias being used with ferns. Those at table were: Mrs. Albert Otis, Miss Nannie Jones, Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Coghill, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Allen, Pauline and Irene Foye, Ray Baker, Minnie Dyer, Mrs. Eleanor Folger, Blanche Tisdale, Mrs. John Stanley, Mrs. Mein and Bob Mein.

VAN WYCKS WILL LIVE IN A HOTEL.

The Sydney Van Wyck, Jr., have sent out cards announcing that they will be at home at 194 Webster street, San Francisco, the second and third Tuesdays in October and November. With the Driscolls, the Frank

Mr. Van Wyck and her daughters

CLEVER YOUNG FRANK MCCOMAS.

Francis McComas, the

It is not related what the coffee-splines

Drums, and the George McNeals across the bay, this winter, we certainly ought to see a lot of society on the other side, and had better begin to plan new wardrobes, for some of the dingy looking fouldards that do service at teas and luncheons on this side, will make a very poor showing across the bay, where people dress so much more than we do.

Mrs. J. Athearn Folger has announced that she will give another cotillon this winter, which will be eagerly looked forward to, and then some of us will attend the three dances to be given by Ed. Greenway, the first and last of the affairs to be assemblies, and the second a cotillon. They are to take place at Native Sons' Hall, the first two to be held on December 5th and 19th, respectively. The patronesses of La Jennesse are to give three dances, and Mrs. Salisbury has arranged for six dances for the Friday Fortnightly Club, the first of them to be held on December 12, so we shall be skipping back and forth at a great rate this winter.

ART WILL NOT DESTROY NATURE.

The J. Athearn Folgers have the true English idea of country life and a country home, which is to be carried out in the property they have purchased in San Mateo county. It is to be laid out and improved with a view to preserving the regular country spirit, and out-of-door enjoyment. Very little that is artificial is to be introduced into the domain, as much as Nature's plans as possible will be undisturbed.

A HONEY-MOON SPENT IN JAPAN.

A number of Chicago people are coming out to attend the wedding of Mabel Hyde and Edwin Gillette, who is a very prominent man of the Windy City. They are to have a delightful wedding trip, and will start for Japan immediately after the wedding, to travel through the country until cold weather sets in, when they will take a house in Tokio. Next spring they will travel in China and will spend some time at the Hawaiian Islands, when on their way home.

VOTARIES OF THE CUP AND SAUCER.

Mrs. George Borneman entertained the members of the Cup and Saucer Club on Wednesday, which was the first meeting of the club since the summer holidays.

CROCKER DINNER DANCES.

Mrs. Will Crocker has promised to give two big dinner dances when she returns from Europe this winter, but so sure as she begins to arrange for them, some one of her numerous relatives will be sure to pass away; it is always the way with her entertainments. Mrs. Crocker was planning a big ball for Elsie Sperry last winter, when her uncle died a few days before the date set, and "Betsy Bird" writes of the novel method Mrs. Crocker took in sending out cards to the men. She says: "Mrs. Crocker last year sent each girl she invited a card for her to fill out of the dancing men she would like to invite. As it is so difficult to find men, and Mrs. Crocker is not in touch with the Brownies, in that way she was certain of having enough men to make the ball a success."

Quite a good idea, wasn't it?

A DOZEN FRIENDS PLAY PING-PONG.

Ethel and Jacqueline Moore had a dozen or so friends up to play ping-pong on Wednesday evening, the Walter Starrs, Sidney Pringle, Charlie Hubbard, Florence Hush and some others enjoying the game.

END OF A FAMOUS SCHOOL.

Lina Brigham Horton was calling in Oakland on Monday, bidding farewell to some of her old friends. The illness of a very favorite sister-in-law and some autumn engagements combined with the law's delays took her home, but she expects to return later when her presence will be again required. On Monday Mrs. Horton wore a fascinating gown and made a charming appearance in her coupe. She was accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert Curtiss. Mrs. Horton had a magnificent wardrobe with her, which her limited stay prevented her from wearing. Among other things she had, I think, the prettiest Renaissance lace gown I have ever seen. Some added pounds of avoidupois have improved Mrs. Horton's appearance, but the glorious big eyes remain the same. When I was a little girl, playing on Jackson street, I used to think that Lina Brigham and Mamie Griffin had the prettiest eyes I had ever seen. Both pairs were destined to shed plenty of tears, but the sun shines again for them now. While Mrs. Horton was here the costliest of hothouse flowers were placed every day on the graves of Mr. and Mrs. Brigham. She wished to erect monuments over their graves, but I understood that there was opposition to it.

BLACK COFFEE ON A BLUE SATIN LAP.

An awkward contretemps happened recently at the dinner given in the red room of the Bohemian Club by the Fred Sanborns to celebrate the anniversary of their marriage. There were thirty or forty guests and one of the males had the misfortune to empty the contents of his cup of black coffee into the pale blue satin lap of the wife of the President of the State University. Now Mrs. Wheeler is a woman of much social experience but she was not proof against this. In fact, even the brow of the President corrugated, for the good man doubtless feared that he would be a vicarious atonement for the sins of his sex on the way home, and the trip to Berkeley is a long one.

CLEVER YOUNG FRANK MCCOMAS.

Francis McComas, the

It is not related what the coffee-splines

CLEVER YOUNG FRANK MCCOMAS.

Francis McComas, the

It is not related what the coffee-splines thought something of spending the winter at Berkeley, but have decided upon hotel life in San Francisco instead.

OAKLAND GIRL WORKS ON MRS. SATHER'S GATES.

Juli Morgan, who came home some weeks ago, after winning all sorts of medals and carrying off prizes at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, in Paris, is assisting in designing the iron gates to the University of California, for which Mrs. Pedar Sather has given $12,000. Juli Morgan is also a graduate of the University at Berkeley.

AIDED AT MARRIAGE IN VIRGINIA.

From Charlotteville, Virginia, comes the news that Marion Smith was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Moran and Lieutenant Hudgings, U. S. N. which was a very swell affair, and united two of the colonial families of Maryland and Virginia. The affair took place at Christ's Episcopal Church, the Bishop of the Diocese and the Rev. Harry Lee, a nephew of General Fitzhugh Lee, officiating. Evelyn Ellis, of this city, was also present.

FASHIONABLE SCHOOLS FOR GIRLS.

Mrs. Scoville's school for girls in New York is receiving quite a boom in Oakland and many girls go to her from here. Chrissie Taft and Bessie Gage were her pupils and when Miss Scoville was here last winter visiting the Taft and Gage families, she made a very good impression. Now pretty Noelle de Golia has gone there. She will come back to us with the charm of a new girl, which is not a bad idea for girls who are to be in society. I wonder if Chrissie Taft is coming back to us engaged. I should not wonder a bit. She is a charming girl—but you know what I think of the ineligibility of Oakland men. The men in Oakland, with three exceptions, which occur to me at the moment, are either still in swaddling clothes or poor as church mice. So what is a poor girl to do?

EXHIBITION OF SANG FROID.

One of the cleverest exhibitions of sang froid that I ever saw was that of one of the Haiger girls—I forget which—one—an embodiment of the visitors' Daughters in the Mademoiselle of the Palace Hotel. Someone snatched a glass of claret out of the cool breadths of her beautiful white gown but Miss Haiger, when she saw the accident, never even glanced at it and went on uninterruptedly in the conversation in which she was taking part. Better still, she remained the evening out and made no attempt to cover the distressing snub. It was really a case of Verde Verda. Nothing I ever saw her do proved her breeding. Of course, the Haiger girls can have all the money they want, but I was reminded of the quotation from Pope in "The Rape of the Lock"—"Mistress of herself through shame fall."

THE KINGS IN NEW YORK.

Mrs. Charles H. King and the Misses Pearl and Mabel King are in New York for a few days, while Miss King renews old friendships with Miss Ely's school. They are staying at the Franklin House and in two days will sail for Europe, where they expect to remain from six to ten months. Most of their time will be spent traveling, as they wish to visit as much as possible during the time they are here.

THE ART OF LIVING.

Is there anything more neglected in these modern days than the delicate and necessary art of living? I know a housewife, the mother of a growing son, who punished him the other day because he told that child was not true, though, being small for his age, he has consistently prevaricated for years as to his exact age, and the buildings were very shabby. To make matters worse, Mrs. Sewall's head teacher left her and set up a rival school, taking away many of the best pupils. This school was one of the first, if not the very first, to incorporate cookery and domestic sciences and gymnasium work in its curriculum, and many famous women have graduated there. Mrs. Sewall herself is a famous housewife and her dinners and entertainments in Indianapolis are said to be faultless. It seems a pity.

BLACK COFFEE ON A BLUE SATIN LAP.

An awkward contretemps happened recently at the dinner given in the red room of the Bohemian Club by the Fred Sanborns to celebrate the anniversary of their marriage. There were thirty or forty guests and one of the males had the misfortune to empty the contents of his cup of black coffee into the pale blue satin lap of the wife of the President of the State University. Now Mrs. Wheeler is a woman of much social experience but she was not proof against this. In fact, even the brow of the President corrugated, for the good man doubtless feared that he would be a vicarious atonement for the sins of his sex on the way home, and the trip to Berkeley is a long one.

The life on the spur of the moment is seldom a good one. You just take

LARGE WEDDING AT ST. PAUL'S THIS AFTERNOON

self first and believe you. Say this is," "I do not time you will be able to work anyone should a little while longer. And this is the moment. And this is the time when you have seen this who are very well at any failure of fortune or the part of their hearts, and they were very successful. Then keep your smile simple and refuse to tell me if you are safe. You could do it yourself. I've often wondered, by the way, if Neptune uttered his tales. Ananias said—why he is said the boat for instant. Do you suppose she did?

One of the most fatal questions lawyers ask or address is in attempting to get them to particular size.

"How many men did you see?"

"A dozen."

"Not so many as I."

"What?"

"The ten thousand."

"Seventy thousand."

"Yes."

"Eighty thousand."

"More than eighty, but you don't know whether there are eighty or more? It was completely destroyed. I should have refused to participate from the first. The cleverest success I ever knew was driven into a corner and had to back on the exterior. To be sure, result, which is, as you can see, a rather different thing, I do not remember."

* * *

JOE HUSH TO GO EAST

JOE HUSH has been here since Mrs. Thomas Magee has been at the East at the end of next week. Mr. Magee will return home as soon as his father's health permits and the three will be the guests of Mrs. Frank Richardson, formerly Jean Richardson, in New York and Burlington, Vermont, over Christmas.

Richardson is engaged with Miss Hush and Mr. Magee. They will have a long vacation. Miss Hush has some personal savings, but hope it does not mean an engagement and marriage before the time of Hush.

* * *

JOE ROSEBROUGH TO

MISS RICHARDSON'S TRAIN.

One of the most brilliant affairs of the season so far was the big coming-out of the new girls for the Clinton Jones of the Valley, for their departure to the East. Lots of people from Oakland, San Francisco, and San Jose were there, and relatives from the station and railroad were present. It was really a grand party, because the train was beautifully decorated, and all valued out of doors. The refreshments were served in the dining car.

An old man, very well, and his son, Mr. E. C. Robinson, from a few days ago, J. C. Rosborough in the dining car. It was truly a delightful scene that day, and no one could stop talking about the beauty of the girls.

MEDDLER.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

A large number of missionaries, who are members of the "Fathers" for the Oriental mission, gave a farewell reception last evening at Franklin Avenue Baptist Church. The gathered pastors and their wives from all of the missions around the bay, together with young people.

Organized by Dr. C. M. Farnham, Franklin Avenue Baptist Church, A. Woods, pastor, member of the Society these addresses—E. Hicks, Prodigy, Rangoon, the Rev. E. Tomkins, T. D. Jones, C. Robbins, and Briggs, Japan andoway. Burxercises many the opportunity normally the outer fourteen.

PRINGS.

Details at Seigler are as follows: Wm. G. Hart, Miss E. Murphy, Miss E. Mulligan, Ed. Hart, Thomas Hart.

OPENING CARD TOURNAMENT.

The Women's Charitable Association will hold a card tournament, Sept. 3, at Harmonie Hall.

Two sets of girls of the exchange set aside for the scorers for the cards, bats, and valuable prizes. The affair is to be a benefit, so all are interested.

The best of young girls who will act as judges will be present today, as follows: Marion James, Clapp, Maud Clark, Mrs. Palmer, Grace Buckley, Miss Frost, Daisy Crawford, Miss Johnson, Winifred Mastick, Miss Baker, Miss Dodge, May Marjorie Lynch, Miss Tisdale, Fau- Leonore Center, Leonora, Hogan, Henken, Mrs. Don, Mrs. E. E. Allie, Mrs. H. C. Williams, Mrs. O'Neill, Roberta Williams, and the Star of this city, Miss Williams of San Francisco.

The members of the sections appointed consist of Mrs. S. P. Teller, George W. Clegg, C. G. Bull, G. Morrison, E. C. Clegg, George H. Mastick, E. C. Clegg, F. O. Otis, C. L. Tisdale, Mrs. H. C. Hough, H. D. Wright, Mrs. M. M. McNeely, Mrs.

The marriage of Miss Etta Yale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gregory Yale, to Milton Dyas Bailey of San Francisco took place this afternoon in St. Paul's Episcopal Church and was one of the prettiest affairs of the kind that has taken place in this city, the present season, which has been most prolific of weddings.

The church which lends itself easily to decorative work was rendered especially beautiful for the occasion by means of flowers, ferns and palms. The decoration, however, attractive as it was cold in comparison with the warm-hearted interest and friendship which inspired the spectators of the event who thronged the church from vestibule to transept.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white ivory satin, elaborately trimmed with duchesse lace and carried a bouquet of white tiger lilies. The bridesmaids were gowned alike in white tulles over pink silk, and carried bouquets of pink tiger lilies.

The groom was attended by his cousin, Herbert Bailey, as best man, while the bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Oliver of this city, Miss Louise Braden of Los Angeles, Miss Florence Bailey of San Francisco and Miss Alnette Edwards of San Francisco.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robt. Ritchie, rector of the church, and during its progress the organ played pianissimo a romantic air.

After the ceremony at the church there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 237 Euclid avenue, Vernon Heights.

The young couple have gone on an extended wedding tour in the southern part of the State.

The bridesmaids were gowned alike

M. F. Tarpey and Miss Dolle Kane, Committee, were also named as follows: Prizes—Mrs. James George Embury, Mrs. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Baucus, Misses Ruthie, C. O'Neil, C. L. Tisdale; hall, Mrs. T. P. Winter; tickets—Mrs. M. F. McGuire; chairs, and tables—Mrs. Roy Alexander, Alan Newall, William Davis, Roy Alexander, George Ludlow, Earl McCullough, George Solars Mrs. H. D. Baucus.

DR. FRANKLIN RETURNS.

Dr. T. S. Fairbanks, the well known local dentist, has returned to the city after an absence of several months at his old home in California. Dr. Fairbanks is associated with Dr. C. H. Walker, and the many patients and friends of the doctor will be glad to learn of his permanent return to Oakland.

★ ★ ★

PROF. SHAW TO LECTURE.

Prof. G. W. Shaw of the Agricultural Department of the State University, will lecture before the Social Economics Section of the Ebell next Thursday morning.

★ ★ ★

PARTY AT MISSION.

The Misses Helen and Alice Nelson are going to their country home near Mission San Jose for a few days' rest. They have taken with them their pretty sister, popular Miss Viva Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hogan have returned to Oakland after a pleasant summer spent in Sunol, for the benefit of Mr. Hogan's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Conde Jones have been at the California Hotel

Mrs. H. C. Taft and Miss Chrissie Taft arrived last week from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lawrence Regan have taken the large residence of the Martin estate on Prospect Heights, in which they will make their home.

The Williams family of Nevada have recently taken up their residence in Berkeley, on Hearst avenue.

Miss Florence Dunham has been spending some days in Oakland, the guest of her friend, Mrs. Frederick English Magee.

Miss Grace Sperry and Miss Winifred Biddle returned this week from a most interesting expedition into the very heart of old Mexico.

Mrs. Ralston and Mrs. Bulitt are coming north to be present at the marriage of Mr. Louis Ralston and Miss Mary Craven. Miss DeFremy has gone East to be one of the bridesmaids.

Victor Nicholson Metcalf is receiving many congratulations on his success in passing the examinations for Annapolis.

Mrs. A. J. Ralston has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bulitt, at the latter's home in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Butters and Mrs. R. Augustus Bray are spending an ideal summer abroad. They are in Geneva.

Mrs. George E. De Golia and Miss Noel left this week for New York, where Miss De Golia will enter an Eastern finishing school.

Miss Grace Wellington-Ackerman of this city, one of the most popular and successful teachers, is back on the coast, having returned to Fresno, where she will resume her duties as vice principal of the Washington High School.

Mrs. H. Kraft and Mrs. Neale Kraft of Red Bluff have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spain have returned to this city from Anderson.

R. M. Brown of this city is the guest of Dr. Lawson of Santa Rosa.

Miss Mary Sedgley of Cloverdale is visiting relatives here.

Henry Mason is on a hunt in the mountains around Healdsburg.

Mrs. A. M. Rutter of this city is looking after business interests in Windsor in this state.

Miss May Boss Graham of St. Helena is visiting in this city.

Vincent Chouepet left Monday for Hanford to attend the fair and visit his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Mackie.

F. Cedley removed to 123 Broadway, opp. Postoffice receives work daily at the Ladies' Fashion Cleaning and Dyeing Works. Dry cleaning a specialty. Telephone Main 175.

★ ★ ★

TOWN TALK.

Saunterer topics in today's Town Talk include: Our smart hostess ultra-Bohemian; the hissing of O'Sullivan; it was hissed before—and where; fortune hunting in politics; Mrs. Harrison to Newport's rescue; a visit of a California girl to Emma Barnes; Dr. Radcliffe as a novelist; at the Van Wyck-Brown wedding; the Fish tragedy, etc. Roosevelt's first cheer is discussed editorially, The musical columns are especially interesting, and all the new plays of the week are reviewed in the dramatic department. There is a story by R. C. Macdonald, poems by Louis Robertson and Elvyn Hoffman, etc., etc. The financial and literary departments are as entertaining as usual.

SOLDIER PREACHER

AT THE Y. M. C. A.

The engagement of Miss Grace Josephine Boggs and Robert Perry Service, both members of the Class of 1902, University of California, has been announced. Both of the young people distinguished themselves during their collegiate careers.

The bride to be was a student in the College of Social Sciences. Her father is a prominent banker of San Bernardino.

Service has for many years been the chief long distance runner at the University. He holds coast records in two events.

RECEPTION TO PASTOR.

Rev. Burton H. Fleming, who was recently appointed assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church, arrived in the city last week. He will be given a reception in the parlors of the church tomorrow evening. Dr. John Fearn will deliver the address of welcome.

Miss Elizabeth Gray gave a short talk on her summer in Alaska, giving many new facts about the civilization of the wonder cities of Dawson and Nome.

The music of the afternoon was of a high order. Miss Margaret Fontana of San Francisco sang with exceeding finish and grace selections from "The Barber of Saville" and from "The Masked Ball."

Refreshments were served and a reception to the curators followed.

Among them are: Mrs. C. O. Knobell, Mrs. D. B. Hunter, Mrs. M. F. Jordan, Mrs. F. E. Ogden, Mrs. J. R. Scapham, Mrs. A. A. D. Emson, Mrs. J. B. Hume, Mrs. S. W. Chubbuck, Mrs. M. F. Benton, Mrs. E. M. Huff, Mrs. E. F. Wilke, Mrs. E. M. Colton, Mrs. D. W. Glickwich, Mrs. M. R. Ballou, Mrs. Mary E. Hart, Mrs. M. H. Foster, Mrs. A. H. Glasscock, Mrs. Henry Vrooman, Mrs. L.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

On Tuesday evening, at their home, 828 Poplar street, Edwin and Miss Etta Embury were tendered a surprise party, the day being the anniversary of their birth.

Those present were: Miss Etta Embury, Edwin Embury, Misses Pearl and Olive Moody, Miss Isabel Morgan, Miss Flossie Adams, Miss Hazel Higgins, Mrs. Etta Embury, Mrs. Mary E. Hart, Mrs. M. H. Foster, Mrs. A. H. Glasscock, Mrs. Henry Vrooman, Mrs. L.

COOKSTOCK.

Mrs. W. B. Bosley, Mrs.

Franklin Kings, Mrs. C. O. Loring,

Milton Pendleton, Mrs. J. G. Lemon,

Mrs. M. F. Benton.

Mrs. Isabelle Davis, one of the founders of the Order of King's Daughters, who was present as a guest, spoke a few words in conclusion in regard to her chosen work, dwelling especially on the subject of the Consumers' League and child labor.

A reception to the curators followed, and after refreshments were served the first open afternoon at Ebell, for this season came to a close.

CONGREGATIONAL

First Congregational Church—Rev. Chas. R. Brown, pastor. Morning service, 11 o'clock. "Things Hoped For." Evening service, 7:30 o'clock, fourth in the series of Oratorio Services. Rossini's "Stabat Mater" will be given.

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL

Rev. J. W. Phillips, pastor. Service at 11 a.m. "Rev. W. A. Tenney will speak. At 7:30 p.m. the pastor will speak. Theme: "An Earnest Life."

FOURTH CONGREGATIONAL

Church—corner Thirty-sixth and Grove streets—Pastor, Rev. A. Bayley. Services Sunday, 2:30 p.m., 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Evening subject: "A Message from Tennyson." Preacher, Rev. J. Simpson.

DINNERS.

Fruitvale Congregational Chapel—Rev. H. B. Mowbray, pastor. 11:00 a.m.

"The Decadence of Prosperity." 7:30 p.m., "The Community Church."

The new chorus choir will sing under the direction of H. F. Crosby.

Plymouth Avenue Congregational Church, Plymouth Avenue (43rd street) and Elm street—Calendar for week commencing September 28, 1902. Sunday: 11:00 a.m., morning worship. Sermon by Rev. J. W. Phillips. 12:15 p.m., Sunday School. 6:15 p.m., Christian Endeavor.

METHODIST.

First Methodist Episcopal Church—The pastor, Rev. E. R. Dilie, will preach morning and evening, 11 a.m. "The Best Attitude." 7:30 p.m., "The Strenuous Life." Special music.

Chester Street Methodist—Rev. S. G. Gilje, D. D., pastor. The pastor will both morning and evening services at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Ninth and Cypress streets, both morning and evening. Morning prayer with sermon at 11 a.m. Evening with sermon at 7:30 o'clock. Sunday School at 9:45 p.m. J. Alexander O'Meara, Rector.

ASBURY M. E. CHURCH—Rev. E. R. Dilie, will preach morning and evening, 11 a.m. "The Best Attitude." 7:30 p.m., "The Strenuous Life." Special music.

Union Street Methodist—Rev. S. G. Gilje, D. D., pastor. The pastor will both morning and evening.

Services at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Ninth and Cypress streets, both morning and evening. Morning prayer with sermon at 11 a.m. Evening with sermon at 7:30 o'clock. Sunday School at 9:45 p.m. J. Alexander O'Meara, Rector.

PREACHER.

First Presbyterian Church—Rev. Ernest E. Baker, D. D., pastor. Sermon at 11 a.m. "The Problem of the Negro." A review of two books, "Up and Down Slavery" and "The Leopard's Spots." Special sermon in series on "Last Things." 7:30 p.m., Subject: "Resurrection in the Light of Cremation." Questions answered in prelude to the sermon.

Brooklyn Presbyterian Church—Rev. H. W. Fraser, pastor. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Lyons of Haywards will preach. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock.</

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA. SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 27, 1902

No. 227

THE FINANCIAL MAN LOOKS AT THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN CALIFORNIA.

About the Politicians in the State—Good Story on Charley Shortridge—When Alvinza Hayward Had Enough.

BY GEORGE F. HATTON.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—What time of the strike on the Market-street system, capital has never had occasion to utter the semblance of a protest against him.

The trouble is, though, that at long range, others do not see what is going on here. The mere classification of a State in the labor column brings about the scaring of outside capital, for investors do not fancy the idea of putting out large sums in localities that under the domination of labor officials, might not be inclined to furnish them the desired protection in the event of a conflict between capital and the toilers.

As at this particular time California is bidding to Eastern financiers and is regarded by them as one of the most golden fields for investment, it is easy enough to account for the desire in conservative minds not to have the news go forth that the labor forces are in control here. It is known that the Baltimore syndicate, that invested so many millions in the Market-street system would never have put a dollar into the State had it thought the present labor movement would develop.

As with this particular syndicate, so with others. Bankers will tell any inquirer that lots of Eastern capitalists who are frequently making large investments here in connection with the Philippine Commerce, are holding off until they see how the elections come out, and this very lack of confidence is in itself sufficient reason to many as to why labor should not be permitted to secure a victory at the polls that will stamp it as the dominating factor instead of either of the older parties.

With this object in view, the Republicans of the State have been hard at work late endeavoring to ally the toilers with them, as indeed they really belong. Their interests have always been guarded and fostered by the Republican party, and it is illogical in the extreme for them to lend aid to the Democratic cause that is responsible for all the ill to which they have been subjected for the past twenty years.

A CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION.

The Republican leaders intend, too, that the people of the State shall see the situation in its proper light. The campaign this year is to be one of education, somewhat similar to the famous sound money canvass when McKinley first ran against Bryan.

In the first place, if it became an issue, this fusion would be a large percentage of the Democrats would ticket rather than out to the world party had captured in mind it is not many Republicans with alarm when the Democrats are massing them. In the first it is the workingman with the object of his condition; hostile criticism to Schmitz, the off-shore movement, for pursued since engaging. On the contrary, owing to one of their candidates may be more closely in personal touch with labor than his Republican rival, but on the broad field of party work and policies, comparison will, indeed, prove odious when the Democrat campaigner attempts to

AL VIEW. the situation presented of financial re-also willing to be led. There is no the workingman with the object of his condition;

hostile criticism to Schmitz, the offshore movement, for pursued since engag-

On the contrary, owing to one of their candidates may be more closely in personal touch with labor than his Republican rival, but on the broad field of party work and policies, comparison will, indeed, prove odious when the Democrat campaigner attempts to Select valuables

while away

Person leaving the city temporarily can leave with us, a single paper, such as a will, a deed or an insurance policy, cases of silverware, trunks of valuable clothing, costly furs, laces, tapestries or pictures, etc. We give storage receipts for them and an absolute guaranty for safe keeping and safe return.

THE

Oakland Bank of Savings

BROADWAY AND TWELFTH STREETS

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL.....	$1,000,000.00
CAPITAL PAID IN.....	450,000.00
RESERVE FUND.....	177,758.82
DEPOSITS, JULY 1, 1902	8,495,439.54

W. W. GARTHWAITE, Cashier
E. C. HAGAR, Assistant Cashier

nominee in the field, but he is defending himself on that score by talking for the ticket and giving personal reasons as to why he is in the fight. There can be no gainsaying the fact that he is making a hurricane campaign in his own peculiar way, for he speaks every night, and intends to make three entire tours of his district between now and election day.

HAYWARD HAD ENOUGH.

Drifting away from politics, here is a good story about Alvinza Hayward. It was recited to your correspondent by one of Hayward's personal friends, who was making the point that only those who are intimately acquainted with the veteran millionaire know what a quaint character he is.

A few years ago his confidential bookkeeper proved to be a defaulter. No one had any idea as to what the shortage was, so an expert was called in and put to work upon the books. Hayward kept close to his office just then, and before the expert had got well to work he dropped in on him and said: "Well, what do the accounts show?"

"I can't tell you yet, Mr. Hayward," was the reply, "but here is a $5,000 item for a start."

Hayward shrugged his shoulders and walked away.

The next morning the expert got another call from his employer.

"How now?" asked Hayward.

"Over $15,000 short to date," replied the scribe.

Hayward gave a long whistle and walked away.

The next afternoon he was in and demanded another report.

"We are up to $30,000 now, Mr. Hayward," he was told. "Great Scott!" he said, "$15,000 since yesterday."

About 2 o'clock the next day he procured another bulletin. The total shortage was $30,000 by this time, and he did a little figuring and walked away.

All of the divisions are using oil for about one-third of the traffic.

The local division now has sixty-three oil burning engines. There remain eighty-six yet to be converted.

It is estimated that within eight months all of the engines will have been converted, and the use of coal on the Western division permanently abandoned.

The telegraphic business of the railroad has become so heavy that a new telegraph line is being run from Mendocino by the way of Martinez to Oakland.

The new line is private and will be devoted exclusively to sending and receiving Southern Pacific messages.

The wire is composed copper. A gang of men are laying the wire now.

The poles of the Western Union will be used.

A NEW ANNEALING FURNACE IS INSTALLED.

The latest acquisition to the machine shops is an annealing furnace, in which oil is one of the working principals.

The furnace is twenty feet long and three feet in diameter. It is large enough to accommodate the largest piece of annealing to be done on a locomotive.

During the month just past the oil burning engines on the local division traveled a distance of approximately 200,000 miles. The coal burning engines passed over 306,752 miles of track.

The grand total traveled by all engines is 506,752 miles.

These figures do not include the Sacramento or Los Angeles divisions.

During a corresponding month last year the mileage was a little over 450,000.

The gain of this year over last is something over 50,000 miles per month, which is a fairly accurate index to the increase in business.

It requires on an average 1,000 gallons or about twenty-four barrels of oil for every 100 miles as compared to five tons of coal. The saving on every hundred miles by using oil ranges from $16 to $20. The total savings for the 200,000 miles traveled by oil burning engines represents from $36,000 to $40,000 per month.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where it was discovered that he had sustained a number of bruises on the body, several scalp wounds and a broken collarbone.

Baldwin told several stories as to how the accident happened. He said he had been visiting a niece, Mrs. Knight, at 1923 Filbert street, in this city. The directory, however, shows no such resident at the number mentioned. Baldwin also stated that he was on one car and was attempting to board another going in an opposite direction at the time of the accident. He also stated that the accident occurred in San Francisco at the corner of First and Howard streets.

It seems, however, that Baldwin was trying to catch car 168 of the San Pablo avenue line going north, when car 166 of the Telegraph avenue was going south. The motorman of the latter shouted to Baldwin to look out for himself. The admittance came too late, and Baldwin was struck by that car.

Baldwin says he is a carpenter and that he resides at 823 M street, Sacramento.

Car 168 was in charge of S. Shatto as motorman and H. J. Truesell as conductor. Car 166 was in charge of E. McHale as motorman and Fred Ledget as conductor.

BOGUS ARMY OFFICER PLEADS GUILTY

I much prefer not to state my right name. I prefer to be tried under the name of Edgar N. Coffey or Edgar N. Newman."

This was the statement made this morning by the pretended lieutenant of the regular army, who forged a check by means of which he secured $100 from Mrs. Barbara Allen, proprietor of the Galindo Hotel. He was standing at the time of the hearing of Judge McElroy in the Superior Court, there to plead. His plea was guilty. He was unattended by counsel at the time. His sentence will be imposed by the court on October 3.

HARDY WANTS HIS BAIL REDUCED.

F. Wallace Hardy, who has been charged with the attempt to kill Wong Lee, a Chinese cook at the residence of mining expert Lindley, in Fruitvale, Saturday last, will have his preliminary examination before Judge Larue on October 8. He appeared before the court today and bail was fixed in the sum of $6,000. Hardy will be defended by T. M. McNamara, a well-known criminal lawyer of San Francisco. Mr. McNamara sought to have the bail fixed at a lower sum and the request will eventually be granted, because the court will be satisfied as to what was the condition of the wounded Chinaman. The celestial, it is understood, is recovering rapidly from the effect of the shot which he received.

Hardy's father, who is a resident of San Luis Obispo, paid a visit to him yesterday in the county jail.

BRIEF COURT NOTES.

The estate of the late Hilaire Remillard has been appraised at $45,000. It consists of 300 shares of stock of the Remillard Brick Company of this city.

The divorce case of Anna T. Deys against Charles J. Reys has been transferred by consent to Kings county.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC IS NOT ABLE TO GET REDWOOD.

The Southern Pacific is unable to obtain redwood ties, which have heretofore been regarded as the best, relative to the withstanding of wear and tear.

The ties after being treated by a creosote process will outwear the ordinary tie by six or seven years.

The inability of the company to get the ties desired for its new lines is owing to the scarcity of redwood itself.

It has recently become by far too valuable to be used for railroad ties.

The prospects are that the price will continue steadily.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL ABANDON COAL FOR FUEL WITHIN A YEAR

Burned Steamer Modoc Company Cannot Get Personal Notes About Will be Entirely Redwood Ties For the Track and Rebuilt. Building Purposes Trainmen.

Oregon pine is being substituted for the redwood.

COMPANY PUTS IN ANOTHER TELEGRAPH LINE.

The telegraphic business of the railroad has become so heavy that a new telegraph line is being run from Mendocino by the way of Martinez to Oakland.

The new line is private and will be devoted exclusively to sending and receiving Southern Pacific messages.

The wire is composed copper. A gang of men are laying the wire now.

The poles of the Western Union will be used.

sugar. The latter will load with freight for Honolulu.

MASTER MECHANIC RUSSELL BUILDS REDUCTION WORKS.

Master Mechanic Russell has put in a new reduction works to save the tar deposit in the oil used at the yards. For several months past the tar, instead of precipitating itself to the bottom of the tanks, had been floating on top of the oil, making it thicker and greater trouble.

An ingenious device Master Mechanic Russell is now able to save the tar which would otherwise have been pumped into the bay. The tar is very valuable, having in it the basic principle of paint.

PERSONAL MENTION OF THE RAILROAD MEN.

Vice-President Hamilton of the Texas Central was among the arrivals this week. He came in his private car 99.

Thursday was pay day at the railroad shops.

C. F. Muller has gone on a vacation of two weeks.

Charles Jacobus, superintendent of the scale house, will leave on Saturday for a vacation of two weeks.

Operator James P. Heany will shortly leave for Los Angeles to attend the marriage of his brother. During his absence Operator Burkman of Sacramento will take his place.

S. A. Dickard is going to Los Angeles on account of ill health.

W. D. Hughes, store keeper at the repairing department, will soon leave for Arizona, where he hopes to recover his health.

Henry Chartrand, foreman of the freight car department, has severed his connection with the Southern Pacific Company.

George O. Shaw has gone to Dunsmuir for a vacation.

Robert Ede will hold the throttle here after on a Salt Lake trip.

Joseph Dura of Sacramento, but formerly of Gold Hill, was a visitor at the shop this week.

W. W. Collins paid his friends a visit this week.

James Barnes is laying off owing to an injury to his foot.

R. Herbert was seriously cut above the eye, and lost the nose by the slipping of a heavy piece of machinery he was handling on Tuesday.

J. J. Foley has been promoted to assistant round-house foreman.

P. C. Conner had the end of one of his fingers cut off on Thursday.

Yardmaster C. W. Jennings has returned from a two weeks' fishing trip at Lake Tahoe. He reports fish plentiful, but did not favor his friends with any of his catches.

During Jennings' absence his place was taken by H. G. Rowland.

A MOTHER LOOKING FOR RUNAWAY BOY.

Chief of Police Hodgkins is in receipt of a letter of inquiry from Mrs. J. Boetsch of Oroville, Butte county, with reference to her 13-year-old son, who ran away from home and who appeared at the County Jail here a few days ago hungry, ill and in want of clothing and applied for a night's lodgings. Mrs. Boetsch states that the boy ran away from home while they were living at 618 Polson street, San Francisco, a short time ago and went to San Jose. All trace of him was then lost until he appeared in this city. The authorities released the boy and his whereabouts now are not known.

MRS. CLATNOFF SAYS HUSBAND IS CRUEL.

Mrs. Martha Clatoff has sued her husband, Henry Clatoff, for divorce, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

The defendant conducts a grocery at 1025 Fifth street.

Mrs. Clatoff alleges that her husband intends to dispose of his stock of groceries at the place mentioned, and this afternoon asked Judge Ogden for an order restraining her spouse from carrying out his purpose.

Thieves Break in and rob private residences, apartments and offices because mechanics leave holes in such structures, convenient for them.

The Central Safe Deposit Vaults provide every Protection for valuables vouchsafed by human care, skill and ingenuity, and the cost is only nominal, the best private safe ever built only $4.00 a year.

"The Central Safe Deposit Vaults are the most modern, safest and best we have ever built."

(Signed) Herring Hall Marvin Safe Co.

CENTRAL BANK

CLUB RECEPTIONS NOW INSTEAD OF AT HOMES.

BETTY MARTIN TELLS OF CANDY TRUST—
MISS WOMEN IN CHURCH—
CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUND.

The candy trust who, its capital of $1,000,000 is going to work its greatest mischief in the sweet-toothed cities of the nation, it is a matter of record that they are the greatest candy makers in the world. San Francisco has the largest number of candy makers in the world, and its size, variety and quality of its size, and sells more candy than any other city in the world. Oakland is the third largest, and many a school child in the city goes into the candy trust because she knows that she may get the best of things. Perhaps the reason why candy is one of the chief luxuries is that it nourishes the body and mind.

Young men have a habit of walking along a street three or four times a day, and without the aid of any money, the solitary pedestrian follows his course. Once given the right of way, they tend to it with a certain determination worthy of a better cause.

They are brave enough to break through the ranks, although once in a while a bold young man has the effrontery to do so, though always at the risk of death, for he is "no gentleman."

Proprietary clubs and women's clubs are rapidly increasing in the course of a day at least, and the place is crowded to the brim, so that women can afford to go out on days like a week to those who may happen to call. So it has come to pass that many social debuts take place in the various rooms, where can be seen every kind of society, as well as literary organizations. There are many other clubs which are popularly known as "gentlemen's clubs," which is that the allusion to the name is always present. They are always with the barbers, and are always having a dull guest, dressed in a suit, and music, and a bottle of beer, which cheers them up, and one is always to be found on the day at least.

Women's clubs are yet essentially a club of men, but in a striking similarity on the social side.

And, together for mutual enjoyment, in set occasions while men form clubs, and make of creature to be realized in the club por-hore. e-clothes and tin-copper bot. Oakland school of perpetual education, Board of Education, the Western States, the Pratt Free Library, the International News Company on Duane street, New York City.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

"Harper's Weekly" for this week is rich with illustrations of the President's recent visit to the South. The pictures are finished in the highest type of art. The literary features are of high order and excellence. The paper is published in New York City.

SMART SET.

"The Smart Set" for October is equal to the best that has been published. It has a number of dainty conceits which are cleverly written and which will be read with a keen appreciation by those who like good stories well told. The Smart Set is published by the Smart Set Company, New York City.

PEARSON'S.

Pearson's Magazine for October contains, among other things, "The Story of New York" by Gustav Kobbé; the "Keystone Keys"; "The Story of the States"; and a number of other articles each of which is well worth reading. It is published in Astor Place, New York City.

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING.

"Good Housekeeping" for October is printed in full color, and practical as ever, with much of the valuable, carefully selected reading which is of a high order. It is published in Springfield, Mass.

INTERNATIONAL QUARTERLY.

"The International Quarterly" for the last four months of this year is rich not only in the varied subjects, but in the excellence of their treatment. It is published in Burlington, Vermont.

DIGEST.

"The Literary Digest" for the current week has among other subjects, an excellent paper on "Home Views of Southern Cities," and the local departments are full and interesting. The Digest is published in New York city.

HARPER'S.

"Harper's Monthly" for October is a most remarkable number of "Dont's," some of which were as follows: "Don't neglect to ask for underwear bearing the Consumers' League label." "Don't shop after 5 o'clock or on Saturday evenings." "Don't leave your Christmas shopping until a week before Christmas." "Don't receive packages delivered after 6 o'clock at night." "Don't address carelessly." These "Dont's," Mrs. Bulkeley explained, were not cast iron rules, but were to be followed whenever practicable.

The standard of a fair house was given as $100 per month, and the same work that no one worker should receive less than $6 per week, that hours should not be longer than from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M., with one-half day off Saturday, in summer, that work, lunch and retiring rooms should be entirely separate from each other.

There is one store in Oakland carrying goods bearing the Consumers' League label, and for the benefit of those present the name and place of business was given.

Mr. John F. Swift of the Century Club of San Francisco and vice-president of the National Council of Women, followed Mrs. Bulkeley with pertinent remarks concerning the local situation, and she added that the housewives of the stores were anxious to suit their customers, and if women who were the world's shoppers, would insist upon certainly giving them.

Mrs. Orr, corresponding secretary of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, made some brief remarks along the same line, directed primarily toward the protection of public health, and Mrs. Post, Alameda, vice-president of the S. F. W. C. spoke at some length the difference between charity and philanthropy. She stated that in her story the economic progress is making rapid progress, and that the result of combined effort of the part of women.

Mrs. Cunningham of the Oakland Club, who has made a study of home surroundings, spoke of many things which should be done to improve conditions in regard to the employment of children.

At the conclusion of the address, signatures to the League regulations were obtained and the forming of an Oakland branch decided upon.

The League is at first organized on a local basis, and themselves to buy houses and manufacture uniforms, etc. All white stitched curtains and corset covers, and lace and lingerie garments, bearing the Consumers' League label, will be sold on all articles manufactured under favorable conditions, and in the same price as those licensed inspector sees that regulations are carried out.

Workmen under 18 years of age are not allowed, and children under 12 years now in all large cities is the "White List," which includes the names of all employees in the garment industry in regard to their work. Living wages must be paid, and the workshops properly ventilated and cleaned.

There are 30,000 tenement houses in New York, there are 30,000 tenement houses in men, women and children together, and it is the intent of the League to take the best care of the members of the family.

BETTY MARTIN.

home work which has been cut out at the factories and do the hard work there. In these tenement houses are to be found all sorts of contagious diseases, which through the agency of this clothing are scattered broadcast over the land.

The Western States use the greater proportion of ready-made garments, most of which are shipped from the great cities of the East.

In conclusion Mrs. Bulkeley said that the rules of the Consumers' League consisted mainly of a series of "Dont's," some of which were as follows:

"Don't neglect to ask for underwear bearing the Consumers' League label."

"Don't shop after 5 o'clock or on Saturday evenings."

"Don't leave your Christmas shopping until a week before Christmas."

"Don't receive packages delivered after 6 o'clock at night."

"Don't address carelessly."

These "Dont's," Mrs. Bulkeley explained, were not cast iron rules, but were to be followed whenever practicable.

The standard of a fair house was given as $100 per month, and the same work that no one worker should receive less than $6 per week, that hours should not be longer than from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M., with one-half day off Saturday, in summer, that work, lunch and retiring rooms should be entirely separate from each other.

There is one store in Oakland carrying goods bearing the Consumers' League label, and for the benefit of those present the name and place of business was given.

Mr. John F. Swift of the Century Club of San Francisco and vice-president of the National Council of Women, followed Mrs. Bulkeley with pertinent remarks concerning the local situation, and she added that the housewives of the stores were anxious to suit their customers, and if women who were the world's shoppers, would insist upon certainly giving them.

Mrs. Orr, corresponding secretary of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, made some brief remarks along the same line, directed primarily toward the protection of public health, and Mrs. Post, Alameda, vice-president of the S. F. W. C. spoke at some length the difference between charity and philanthropy. She stated that in her story the economic progress is making rapid progress, and that the result of combined effort of the part of women.

Mrs. Cunningham of the Oakland Club, who has made a study of home surroundings, spoke of many things which should be done to improve conditions in regard to the employment of children.

At the conclusion of the address, signatures to the League regulations were obtained and the forming of an Oakland branch decided upon.

The League is at first organized on a local basis, and themselves to buy houses and manufacture uniforms, etc. All white stitched curtains and corset covers, and lace and lingerie garments, bearing the Consumers' League label, will be sold on all articles manufactured under favorable conditions, and in the same price as those licensed inspector sees that regulations are carried out.

Workmen under 18 years of age are not allowed, and children under 12 years now in all large cities is the "White List," which includes the names of all employees in the garment industry in regard to their work. Living wages must be paid, and the workshops properly ventilated and cleaned.

There are 30,000 tenement houses in New York, there are 30,000 tenement houses in men, women and children together, and it is the intent of the League to take the best care of the members of the family.

BETTY MARTIN.

home work which has been cut out at the factories and do the hard work there. In these tenement houses are to be found all sorts of contagious diseases, which through the agency of this clothing are scattered broadcast over the land.

The Western States use the greater proportion of ready-made garments, most of which are shipped from the great cities of the East.

In conclusion Mrs. Bulkeley said that the rules of the Consumers' League consisted mainly of a series of "Dont's," some of which were as follows:

"Don't neglect to ask for underwear bearing the Consumers' League label."

"Don't shop after 5 o'clock or on Saturday evenings."

"Don't leave your Christmas shopping until a week before Christmas."

"Don't receive packages delivered after 6 o'clock at night."

"Don't address carelessly."

These "Dont's," Mrs. Bulkeley explained, were not cast iron rules, but were to be followed whenever practicable.

The standard of a fair house was given as $100 per month, and the same work that no one worker should receive less than $6 per week, that hours should not be longer than from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M., with one-half day off Saturday, in summer, that work, lunch and retiring rooms should be entirely separate from each other.

There is one store in Oakland carrying goods bearing the Consumers' League label, and for the benefit of those present the name and place of business was given.

Mr. John F. Swift of the Century Club of San Francisco and vice-president of the National Council of Women, followed Mrs. Bulkeley with pertinent remarks concerning the local situation, and she added that the housewives of the stores were anxious to suit their customers, and if women who were the world's shoppers, would insist upon certainly giving them.

Mrs. Orr, corresponding secretary of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, made some brief remarks along the same line, directed primarily toward the protection of public health, and Mrs. Post, Alameda, vice-president of the S. F. W. C. spoke at some length the difference between charity and philanthropy. She stated that in her story the economic progress is making rapid progress, and that the result of combined effort of the part of women.

Mrs. Cunningham of the Oakland Club, who has made a study of home surroundings, spoke of many things which should be done to improve conditions in regard to the employment of children.

At the conclusion of the address, signatures to the League regulations were obtained and the forming of an Oakland branch decided upon.

The League is at first organized on a local basis, and themselves to buy houses and manufacture uniforms, etc. All white stitched curtains and corset covers, and lace and lingerie garments, bearing the Consumers' League label, will be sold on all articles manufactured under favorable conditions, and in the same price as those licensed inspector sees that regulations are carried out.

Workmen under 18 years of age are not allowed, and children under 12 years now in all large cities is the "White List," which includes the names of all employees in the garment industry in regard to their work. Living wages must be paid, and the workshops properly ventilated and cleaned.

There are 30,000 tenement houses in New York, there are 30,000 tenement houses in men, women and children together, and it is the intent of the League to take the best care of the members of the family.

BETTY MARTIN.

home work which has been cut out at the factories and do the hard work there. In these tenement houses are to be found all sorts of contagious diseases, which through the agency of this clothing are scattered broadcast over the land.

The Western States use the greater proportion of ready-made garments, most of which are shipped from the great cities of the East.

In conclusion Mrs. Bulkeley said that the rules of the Consumers' League consisted mainly of a series of "Dont's," some of which were as follows:

"Don't neglect to ask for underwear bearing the Consumers' League label."

"Don't shop after 5 o'clock or on Saturday evenings."

"Don't leave your Christmas shopping until a week before Christmas."

"Don't receive packages delivered after 6 o'clock at night."

"Don't address carelessly."

These "Dont's," Mrs. Bulkeley explained, were not cast iron rules, but were to be followed whenever practicable.

The standard of a fair house was given as $100 per month, and the same work that no one worker should receive less than $6 per week, that hours should not be longer than from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M., with one-half day off Saturday, in summer, that work, lunch and retiring rooms should be entirely separate from each other.

There is one store in Oakland carrying goods bearing the Consumers' League label, and for the benefit of those present the name and place of business was given.

Mr. John F. Swift of the Century Club of San Francisco and vice-president of the National Council of Women, followed Mrs. Bulkeley with pertinent remarks concerning the local situation, and she added that the housewives of the stores were anxious to suit their customers, and if women who were the world's shoppers, would insist upon certainly giving them.

Mrs. Orr, corresponding secretary of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, made some brief remarks along the same line, directed primarily toward the protection of public health, and Mrs. Post, Alameda, vice-president of the S. F. W. C. spoke at some length the difference between charity and philanthropy. She stated that in her story the economic progress is making rapid progress, and that the result of combined effort of the part of women.

Mrs. Cunningham of the Oakland Club, who has made a study of home surroundings, spoke of many things which should be done to improve conditions in regard to the employment of children.

At the conclusion of the address, signatures to the League regulations were obtained and the forming of an Oakland branch decided upon.

The League is at first organized on a local basis, and themselves to buy houses and manufacture uniforms, etc. All white stitched curtains and corset covers, and lace and lingerie garments, bearing the Consumers' League label, will be sold on all articles manufactured under favorable conditions, and in the same price as those licensed inspector sees that regulations are carried out.

Workmen under 18 years of age are not allowed, and children under 12 years now in all large cities is the "White List," which includes the names of all employees in the garment industry in regard to their work. Living wages must be paid, and the workshops properly ventilated and cleaned.

There are 30,000 tenement houses in New York, there are 30,000 tenement houses in men, women and children together, and it is the intent of the League to take the best care of the members of the family.

BETTY MARTIN.

home work which has been cut out at the factories and do the hard work there. In these tenement houses are to be found all sorts of contagious diseases, which through the agency of this clothing are scattered broadcast over the land.

The Western States use the greater proportion of ready-made garments, most of which are shipped from the great cities of the East.

In conclusion Mrs. Bulkeley said that the rules of the Consumers' League consisted mainly of a series of "Dont's," some of which were as follows:

"Don't neglect to ask for underwear bearing the Consumers' League label."

"Don't shop after 5 o'clock or on Saturday evenings."

"Don't leave your Christmas shopping until a week before Christmas."

"Don't receive packages delivered after 6 o'clock at night."

"Don't address carelessly."

These "Dont's," Mrs. Bulkeley explained, were not cast iron rules, but were to be followed whenever practicable.

The standard of a fair house was given as $100 per month, and the same work that no one worker should receive less than $6 per week, that hours should not be longer than from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M., with one-half day off Saturday, in summer, that work, lunch and retiring rooms should be entirely separate from each other.

There is one store in Oakland carrying goods bearing the Consumers' League label, and for the benefit of those present the name and place of business was given.

Mr. John F. Swift of the Century Club of San Francisco and vice-president of the National Council of Women, followed Mrs. Bulkeley with pertinent remarks concerning the local situation, and she added that the housewives of the stores were anxious to suit their customers, and if women who were the world's shoppers, would insist upon certainly giving them.

Mrs. Orr, corresponding secretary of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, made some brief remarks along the same line, directed primarily toward the protection of public health, and Mrs. Post, Alameda, vice-president of the S. F. W. C. spoke at some length the difference between charity and philanthropy. She stated that in her story the economic progress is making rapid progress, and that the result of combined effort of the part of women.

Mrs. Cunningham of the Oakland Club, who has made a study of home surroundings, spoke of many things which should be done to improve conditions in regard to the employment of children.

At the conclusion of the address, signatures to the League regulations were obtained and the forming of an Oakland branch decided upon.

The League is at first organized on a local basis, and themselves to buy houses and manufacture uniforms, etc. All white stitched curtains and corset covers, and lace and lingerie garments, bearing the Consumers' League label, will be sold on all articles manufactured under favorable conditions, and in the same price as those licensed inspector sees that regulations are carried out.

Workmen under 18 years of age are not allowed, and children under 12 years now in all large cities is the "White List," which includes the names of all employees in the garment industry in regard to their work. Living wages must be paid, and the workshops properly ventilated and cleaned.

There are 30,000 tenement houses in New York, there are 30,000 tenement houses in men, women and children together, and it is the intent of the League to take the best care of the members of the family.

BETTY MARTIN.

home work which has been cut out at the factories and do the hard work there. In these tenement houses are to be found all sorts of contagious diseases, which through the agency of this clothing are scattered broadcast over the land.

The Western States use the greater proportion of ready-made garments, most of which are shipped from the great cities of the East.

In conclusion

PLAYS SCHEDULED FOR BOTH SIDES OF THE BAY.

Shirley Company Opens at the Macdonough Theater—James M. Ward at Dewey—Bills at the San Francisco Theaters.

"A story full of heart interest, essentially French, and yet with nothing in it to cause even a prude to blush."

The above is a good description of Onida's great play, "Under Two Flags," which the Shirley Company will produce at the Macdonough Theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The novel has been widely read and the play is one of the reigning successes of the stage today, and is having an unprecedented run in the East at present.

The plot deals with an English nobleman, a cavalry officer, who becomes ruined through his own free-handed generosity. A forgery is committed by his younger brother whom he has always watched over with a care which was more fatherly than brotherly. The crime is charged to the older brother. To clear himself from the charge he has to leave England, and has established without involving in a scandal the good name of a woman who has been guilty of nothing more than thoughtless folly, and rather than to clear his own good name of the charge by such means, he flies in from England thus bearing the ignominy of his brother's shame.

When next seen he is bearing the burden of his self exile as a corporal in the French army in Algeria, where he has incurred the hatred of his commanding officer and by his indifference won the heart of "Cigarette," a dashing vivandiere whose gamine nature has made her a popular favorite. "Cigarette" loves him madly, but her love is not returned, or even suspected by the object who treats her as a brother might treat a wayward child. His heart is lost to a woman of his rank and country who is traveling in Algeria. His enemy, the Colonels, send him with their unkindly slings to obtain his pardon, arriving at the execution ground just as the command "Fire" had been given, receiving in her body the bullets intended for the man she loved and dying in his arms.

The play is rich in romance and the scenic possibilities are practically unlimited.

"AFTER DARK" AT THE DEWEY THEATER.

At the Dewey Theater next week there will be another star performance in which the versatile actor, James Ward, will play a leading part. The play will be "After Dark," a piece which has always been a favorite here and especially with Mr. Ward appears in the role in which he has become famous the world over.

"After Dark" makes a daring ride through a desert storm to obtain his pardon, arriving at the execution ground just as the command "Fire" had been given, receiving in her body the bullets intended for the man she loved and dying in his arms.

The play is rich in romance and the scenic possibilities are practically unlimited.

GOSSIP ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS AND THE STAGE.

Carlotta Nilsson has been engaged by George H. Brennan for a prominent part in Mrs. Le Moyne's production of Glen Macdonough's play, "Among Those Present."

Thomas E. Shea of the Selden-Shea Amusement Company, started his season this week at Fall River, Mass., at the Academy of Music.

"The Missouri Girl," which Harry S. Hopping is managing, has opened its third season, carrying a cartload of special scenery and a new line of prints.

James O'Neill witnessed a production of "The Crisost," with Edmund Breese as Edmund O'Brien, and he expressed himself as delighted over the performance.

Mr. O'Neill sold the rights to the play to the present management, Messrs. Ellis & Gilbert, who for several years were members of his company.

"The Two Sisters" began its season in New Haven on Thursday of this week under the management of Hickey J. Williamson. The company includes Joseph J. Donelly, Misses J. C. Vernon, Isabel Penton, Emily Stowe, Frank J. Harvey and several others. A scenic equipment has been provided for the play.

Zelma Rawlinson has scored heavily with two new songs called "Cooch with the Panam" and "For Her."

The London Opera Belles have scored with their singing and dancing company. They recently arrived from London.

Bernice Norcross, who was last season with "The White Horse Tavern," appeared at the Victoria Theater last Monday. It was hoped that Hall Caine would arrive in time to be present on this occasion, but a cable received from him stated that he had to remain in England to complete his tour.

This play will be given advantage in "A Widow Hunt." The scenery and costumes will be elaborate and a grand production is promised.

"THE POLICE INSPECTOR" CENTRAL THEATER.

The Central Theater offers a very strong attraction for the week commencing Monday evening next with Will B. Wilson's great play, "The Police Inspector." It is well written and fully illustrates the workings of the celebrated New York police department. Its hero is the famous Inspector Byrnes and the play teams with its daring adventures and startling climaxes, though the management has had to pay an enormous royalty to set the right price to produce it. New money and effects have been specially prepared for it, and the splendid cast cannot fail to do justice to it. Some of the leading characters will be cast as follows: Inspector Byrnes, Henry Shumer; Ben Bree, Fred E. Everett; Silas Vandever, George Nichols; Mrs. Gifford Elmer Booth; Bunt Scott; Thomas Kelms; David Drake, George P. Webster; Hiriam Chessbren, Ernest Howell; Hungry Joe, James Blake; Reddy Student; Sergeant of Police, Walter Whipple.

John Keefe has scored a big hit as Reuben in Morris & Hall's production of "When Reuben Comes to Town." It will be followed by a production of one of the hits of "Fox Grandpas" at the Thirtieth Street Theater, but he has gone it one better as Reuben.

William Nesbitt has been signed as leading man for "Olivera" October 1st and has gone on to Minneapolis to begin his engagement. Miss Nesbitt was with W. H. Crane last season.

"The Deasy Heater" will open this season in "Peck's Bad Boy" in which he made his last year as the soprano. The tour will open next Saturday in Gloucester, Mass.

John Gottlieb, who has been touring the continent, and who returned a week ago, has started westward to "Priso" to resume his duties at the Columbia Theater.

Melville Stokes, who it will be recalled, piloted Anna Held's first tour, will rejoin her business staff in December. Mrs. Southern has sailed from London and is due to arrive here on Saturday.

NEW STAR COMPANY AT ALCAZAR THEATER.

The seventh Alcazar Stock Season will begin Monday night when John Oliver Hobbs' famous comedy, "The Ambassador," which created an immense furor in London and New York will be magnificently staged and cast.

Will Individuado, Charles A. Millard, the new leading man as "The St. Orgy" of the British Ambassador at Madrid, Mr. Millard comes from London under special engagement to Belasco & Thail, where he has distinguished himself at Drury Lane, the Adelphi, Lyric, and the New London Theater. Suzanne Santje, the new leading lady, is a stranger here but has identified herself with the leading in the East where, for two seasons, she was the principal feminine support of Richard Mansfield. She will play Juliet Gainsborough. William Lamp, the new juvenile is considered the handhest man in the Eastern stage and has been identified with the leading New York theaters. The role will be that of Vivian Beauverde. The remainder of the cast will be very fine. The play will run all week.

CAVALLERIA AND NORMA AT THE TIVOLI.

Next week, the Tivoli company presents "Norma" on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights, and the big double bill of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I Pagliacci" on Tuesday, Thursday, and Sunday nights, and at the Saturday matinee. In the "Norma" cast will be De Frate, Pozzi, Venetini, Dada, Anna Wilson and Cortesi. These singers were all heard in their respective parts when the opera was done at this house two weeks ago and the cast is a thoroughly capable one all around. De Frate made the hit of her engagement as Norma.

Montanari will be Santuzza in "Cavalleria," a good part for the soprano, and Colamarini is cast for Lola Turridi, who will sing by Agostini, and Alfonso D'Albore.

GOSPIP ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS AND THE STAGE.

Carlotta Nilsson has been engaged by George H. Brennan for a prominent part in Mrs. Le Moyne's production of Glen Macdonough's play, "Among Those Present."

Thomas E. Shea of the Selden-Shea Amusement Company, started his season this week at Fall River, Mass., at the Academy of Music.

"The Missouri Girl," which Harry S. Hopping is managing, has opened its third season, carrying a cartload of special scenery and a new line of prints.

James O'Neill witnessed a production of "The Crisost," with Edmund Breese as Edmund O'Brien, and he expressed himself as delighted over the performance.

Mr. O'Neill sold the rights to the play to the present management, Messrs. Ellis & Gilbert, who for several years were members of his company.

"The Two Sisters" began its season in New Haven on Thursday of this week under the management of Hickey J. Williamson. The company includes Joseph J. Donelly, Misses J. C. Vernon, Isabel Penton, Emily Stowe, Frank J. Harvey and several others. A scenic equipment has been provided for the play.

Zelma Rawlinson has scored heavily with two new songs called "Cooch with the Panam" and "For Her."

The London Opera Belles have scored with their singing and dancing company. They recently arrived from London.

Bernice Norcross, who was last season with "The White Horse Tavern," appeared at the Victoria Theater last Monday. It was hoped that Hall Caine would arrive in time to be present on this occasion, but a cable received from him stated that he had to remain in England to complete his tour.

This play will be given advantage in "A Widow Hunt." The scenery and costumes will be elaborate and a grand production is promised.

WILFRED CLARKE'S HUMOR AT THE GRAND OPERA.

Wilfred Clarke has demonstrated by his clever impersonation of Tony Lumpkin in "She Stoops to Conquer" at the Grand Opera House this week that he is justly entitled to be called one of America's greatest comedians. His portrayal of the character is almost perfect and the production of the play is in every way equal to any ever given in this city.

The second week of Mr. Clarke's engagement will be devoted to a production of "A Widow Hunt." As Major Wellington de Boots, Mr. Clarke will be seen in a character made famous by his father, J. S. Clarke, in the play in which the son is said to be equally great. The Grand Opera House Stock Company, which has furnished Mr. Clarke such excellent support during the past week will again be seen to great advantage in "A Widow Hunt." The scenery and costumes will be elaborate and a grand production is promised.

"THE POLICE INSPECTOR" CENTRAL THEATER.

The Central Theater offers a very strong attraction for the week commencing Monday evening next with Will B. Wilson's great play, "The Police Inspector." It is well written and fully illustrates the workings of the celebrated New York police department. Its hero is the famous Inspector Byrnes and the play teams with its daring adventures and startling climaxes, though the management has had to pay an enormous royalty to set the right price to produce it. New money and effects have been specially prepared for it, and the splendid cast cannot fail to do justice to it. Some of the leading characters will be cast as follows: Inspector Byrnes, Henry Shumer; Ben Bree, Fred E. Everett; Silas Vandever, George Nichols; Mrs. Gifford Elmer Booth; Bunt Scott; Thomas Kelms; David Drake, George P. Webster; Hiriam Chessbren, Ernest Howell; Hungry Joe, James Blake; Reddy Student; Sergeant of Police, Walter Whipple.

John Keefe has scored a big hit as Reuben in Morris & Hall's production of "When Reuben Comes to Town." It will be followed by a production of one of the hits of "Fox Grandpas" at the Thirtieth Street Theater, but he has gone it one better as Reuben.

William Nesbitt has been signed as leading man for "Olivera" October 1st and has gone on to Minneapolis to begin his engagement. Miss Nesbitt was with W. H. Crane last season.

"The Deasy Heater" will open this season in "Peck's Bad Boy" in which he made his last year as the soprano. The tour will open next Saturday in Gloucester, Mass.

Will Individuado, Charles A. Millard, the new leading man as "The St. Orgy" of the British Ambassador at Madrid, Mr. Millard comes from London under special engagement to Belasco & Thail, where he has distinguished himself at Drury Lane, the Adelphi, Lyric, and the New London Theater. Suzanne Santje, the new leading lady, is a stranger here but has identified herself with the leading in the East where, for two seasons, she was the principal feminine support of Richard Mansfield. She will play Juliet Gainsborough. William Lamp, the new juvenile is considered the handhest man in the Eastern stage and has been identified with the leading New York theaters. The role will be that of Vivian Beauverde. The remainder of the cast will be very fine. The play will run all week.

PLAYS SCHEDULED FOR BOTH SIDES OF THE BAY.

Shirley Company Opens at the Macdonough Theater—James M. Ward at Dewey—Bills at the San Francisco Theaters.

"A story full of heart interest, essentially French, and yet with nothing in it to cause even a prude to blush."

The above is a good description of Onida's great play, "Under Two Flags," which the Shirley Company will produce at the Macdonough Theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The novel has been widely read and the play is one of the reigning successes of the stage today, and is having an unprecedented run in the East at present.

The plot deals with an English nobleman, a cavalry officer, who becomes ruined through his own free-handed generosity. A forgery is committed by his younger brother whom he has always watched over with a care which was more fatherly than brotherly. The crime is charged to the older brother. To clear himself from the charge he has to leave England, and has established without involving in a scandal the good name of a woman who has been guilty of nothing more than thoughtless folly, and rather than to clear his own good name of the charge by such means, he flies in from England thus bearing the ignominy of his brother's shame.

When next seen he is bearing the burden of his self exile as a corporal in the French army in Algeria, where he has incurred the hatred of his commanding officer and by his indifference won the heart of "Cigarette," a dashing vivandiere whose gamine nature has made her a popular favorite. "Cigarette" loves him madly, but her love is not returned, or even suspected by the object who treats her as a brother might treat a wayward child. His heart is lost to a woman of his rank and country who is traveling in Algeria. His enemy, the Colonels, send him with their unkindly slings to obtain his pardon, arriving at the execution ground just as the command "Fire" had been given, receiving in her body the bullets intended for the man she loved and dying in his arms.

The play is rich in romance and the scenic possibilities are practically unlimited.

GOSSIP ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS AND THE STAGE.

Carlotta Nilsson has been engaged by George H. Brennan for a prominent part in Mrs. Le Moyne's production of Glen Macdonough's play, "Among Those Present."

Thomas E. Shea of the Selden-Shea Amusement Company, started his season this week at Fall River, Mass., at the Academy of Music.

"The Missouri Girl," which Harry S. Hopping is managing, has opened its third season, carrying a cartload of special scenery and a new line of prints.

James O'Neill witnessed a production of "The Crisost," with Edmund Breese as Edmund O'Brien, and he expressed himself as delighted over the performance.

Mr. O'Neill sold the rights to the play to the present management, Messrs. Ellis & Gilbert, who for several years were members of his company.

"The Two Sisters" began its season in New Haven on Thursday of this week under the management of Hickey J. Williamson. The company includes Joseph J. Donelly, Misses J. C. Vernon, Isabel Penton, Emily Stowe, Frank J. Harvey and several others. A scenic equipment has been provided for the play.

Zelma Rawlinson has scored heavily with two new songs called "Cooch with the Panam" and "For Her."

The London Opera Belles have scored with their singing and dancing company. They recently arrived from London.

Bernice Norcross, who was last season with "The White Horse Tavern," appeared at the Victoria Theater last Monday. It was hoped that Hall Caine would arrive in time to be present on this occasion, but a cable received from him stated that he had to remain in England to complete his tour.

This play will be given advantage in "A Widow Hunt." The scenery and costumes will be elaborate and a grand production is promised.

GOSSIP ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS AND THE STAGE.

Carlotta Nilsson has been engaged by George H. Brennan for a prominent part in Mrs. Le Moyne's production of Glen Macdonough's play, "Among Those Present."

Thomas E. Shea of the Selden-Shea Amusement Company, started his season this week at Fall River, Mass., at the Academy of Music.

"The Missouri Girl," which Harry S. Hopping is managing, has opened its third season, carrying a cartload of special scenery and a new line of prints.

James O'Neill witnessed a production of "The Crisost," with Edmund Breese as Edmund O'Brien, and he expressed himself as delighted over the performance.

Mr. O'Neill sold the rights to the play to the present management, Messrs. Ellis & Gilbert, who for several years were members of his company.

"The Two Sisters" began its season in New Haven on Thursday of this week under the management of Hickey J. Williamson. The company includes Joseph J. Donelly, Misses J. C. Vernon, Isabel Penton, Emily Stowe, Frank J. Harvey and several others. A scenic equipment has been provided for the play.

Zelma Rawlinson has scored heavily with two new songs called "Cooch with the Panam" and "For Her."

The London Opera Belles have scored with their singing and dancing company. They recently arrived from London.

Bernice Norcross, who was last season with "The White Horse Tavern," appeared at the Victoria Theater last Monday. It was hoped that Hall Caine would arrive in time to be present on this occasion, but a cable received from him stated that he had to remain in England to complete his tour.

This play will be given advantage in "A Widow Hunt." The scenery and costumes will be elaborate and a grand production is promised.

GOSSIP ABOUT PLAYS, PLAYERS AND THE STAGE.

Carlotta Nilsson has been engaged by George H. Brennan for a prominent part in Mrs. Le Moyne's production of Glen Macdonough's play, "Among Those Present."

Thomas E. Shea of the Selden-Shea Amusement Company, started his season this week at Fall River, Mass., at the Academy of Music.

"The Missouri Girl," which Harry S. Hopping is managing, has opened its third season, carrying a cartload of special scenery and a new line of prints.

James O'Neill witnessed a production of "The Crisost," with Edmund Breese as Edmund O'Brien, and he expressed himself as delighted over the performance.

Mr. O'Neill sold the rights to the play to the present management, Messrs. Ellis & Gilbert, who for several years were members of his company.

"The Two Sisters" began its season in New Haven on Thursday of this week under the management of Hickey J. Williamson. The company includes Joseph J. Donelly, Misses J. C. Vernon, Isabel Penton, Emily Stowe, Frank J. Harvey and several others. A scenic equipment has been provided for the play.</p

COUNCIL OF SUPERVISORS.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF SUPER-VISORS, MONDAY, SEP-TEMBER 22, 1902.

The Board of Supervisors met at 9 a.m. The minutes of the meetings of September 15th were read.

Report of the Board of Officers, Relief, and for men of July 1st.

Report of August 1st.

Report of August 1st.

Report of Notice from the San Redacted placed on

NOTICE OF ORS.

Affidavit of in the districting the street north.
Same was were refor ink wells same was re-same for various hospital com-

RIBITS.
application for imprisonment
Instead of a recommendation application Supervisor allowing vote:
ch. Horner,
Rowe, Talcott and Chairman Mitchell—5.

ions made up obtain license urst; Joseph C. Lavin of man, of San cations being ons accomere approval applications reance and lion of Supervisor the following

ch. Horner,
n. Mitchell—5.

ADJOURNMENT.
There being no further business to transact the Board adjourned to meet Monday, September 29th, 1902, at 10 o'clock a.m.

JOHN MITCHELL,

Attest: Frank C. Jordan, Clerk.

By R. T. Baker, Deputy Clerk.

HOTELS.

Hotel Metropole

Thirteenth and Jefferson streets. A strictly high grade and thoroughly modern residential and transient hotel, conducted for those who want the best.

R. M. BRIARE, Proprietor.

CRELLIN HOTEL

Corner Tenth and Washington streets,

Oakland. Rooms single or en suite, with or without private baths. American plan.

FRED A. JORDAN, Prop.

paid here

PALACE AND GRAND
HOTELS

These hotels possess the attributes that tourists and travelers appreciate—central location, liberal management, modern appointments and perfect cuisine.

San Francisco

American and European plans.

SECURITY!
CONVENIENCE!

PRIVACY!

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

For 15 per year and upwards with

SUPERIOR ACCOMMODATIONS

IN THE

FIRE AND BURGLAR PROOF

VAULTS of the California Safe Deposit

and Trust Company

Cor. California and Montgomery Sts.

SAN FRANCISCO.

H. S. BRIDGE

& CO.,

Merchant Tailors,

622 MARKET STREET,

Upstairs, opposite Palace Hotel, San Francisco.

New Choice Patterns

1902

Spring and Summer.

DELICATESSEN AND BAKERY

106 TELEGRAPH AVE.

Cor. 17th, East Side of Street.

Hot Soups every day. Roast Meats.

Baked Ham, Meat Pies, Fried Fish, Cod.

Baked Beans, Salads, Puddings.

Sauerkraut, Sauerkraut, Cheese, Ranch

Eggs, Home Made Jellies, Jam and Mayonnaise Dressing.

Branch of Capt. Ann Bakery.

THEO. ZIEGLER.

20 YEARS IN EUROPE AND AUSTRALIA.

Established Thirteen Years in Oakland.

A. L. Stone

lowest and solved. That adjudication be awarded to E.

That a surety required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

contingent Board be

sign said

County and

expenses

be paid to E.

That a surety

required from

Co. and that the

